About Tonya

Roads Less Traveled Properties Introduces Tonya Laney as the Owner / Broker of a team of Professional Land and Ranch Specialists. Tonya grew up in New Mexico and Arizona and comes from five generations of active ranchers. Tonya is no stranger to working cattle, guiding hunts, as well as the management of the breeding system best suited for various land types. She understands ranch economics, water maintenance, and seasonal demands of gathering and shipping of livestock, as well as care of support systems that benefit a successful ranch business.

Roads Less Traveled Members live the Western Outdoor Life, Love God, Family and the Land. They strive to provide a service to their customers unlike any other realty service regarding the most current land information, knowledge of detail of every property, and the wishes of the buyers and sellers. Complete information and assistance from the best grasses to the best details for 1031 tax deferred exchanges. Tonya is looking forward to representing you in your special quest for land acquisitions and sales.
