Timberline Bank named 2022 SBA Colorado District 7 (a) Lender of the year.

May 11, 2022

Timberline Bank received the Small Business Administration (SBA) Colorado's 7(a) Small Lender of the year award. Timberline Bank CO-CEOs, Jeff Taets & Jim Pedersen, and Grand Junction President, Louise Goodman attended the award ceremony in Denver on May 6, 2022.

Timberline Bank was named as Colorado's 7(a) Small Lender of the year during the SBA National Small Business Week, co-hosted by the City and County of Denver, Denver Economic Development & Opportunity. Frances Padilla, District Director, SBA Colorado District Office, welcomed recipients and congratulated small business representatives at the ceremony.

"We are humbled and excited to be named for this award. But Timberline should be thanking the SBA for their support to our small business, which is locally owned and operated, they are an essential partner to so many small businesses in Colorado" said Goodman during her acceptance speech.

"It is an honor to be presented with this award for serving small businesses and especially gratifying since Timberline Bank is a small business," said Pedersen.

National Small Business Week has been hosted annually since 1953 to encourage other small business owners and enable them to learn from fellow small businesses' successes, SBA Administration.
