“I don’t believe in cloning all hitters to suit my style. All hitters are different and should be treated as such. I use video analysis as a valuable teaching tool to instill the proper mechanics and sound fundamentals. I believe in a positive mental approach, getting results and making it fun. So if you would like to achieve your full potential as a hitter and get the individual attention you deserve, email, text or call me at 617-312-2033-- larryscannell@gmail.com.
