

ATONEMENT IN ACTION

From Pastor Katie

This is the fourth Lenten journey we are on together with Common Ground on Wednesday evenings. What a joy it is to gather and be reminded of our interconnectedness. We are ALL recovering from something, even if we are too afraid or embarrassed to admit it! There are still a few more Wednesdays left to come and join us. Mal and Gloria make amazing soup for us at 6pm. Then at 7pm we gather for worship where parts of Holden Evening Prayer are woven into the traditional Common Ground liturgy that includes a time of sharing as well as communion. Even after Lent ends and the great and holy Easter season begins, we are encouraged to attend Common Ground services at 7pm each Wednesday to give ourselves a midweek jolt of honesty and Jesus!

I pray that your Lenten journeys have been filled this year with some moments of love and joy. I pray you will come and hear the Easter resurrection promise. This year we will worship at 9am & 10:30am on Easter morning. The 10:30am service is the one that will be livestreamed. Invite a friend, invite a neighbor. Remind one another that everyone is welcome and Jesus comes for all of us. Thanks be to God!

Peace and love,
Pastor Katie

Worship for Sundays in April

Fifth Sunday in Lent ♦ April 6 ♦ 10:00 AM

the Rev. Katie Lyon

Our God makes all things new. In the first reading God promises it. In the gospel Mary anticipates it, anointing Jesus' feet with costly perfume in preparation for the day of his burial. In the second reading Paul recalls his transformation from the persecutor Saul into an apostle. In baptism, God's new person (you!) rises daily from the deadly mire of trespasses and sins.

Sunday of the Passion/Palm Sunday ♦ April 13 ♦ 10:00 AM

the Rev. Katie Lyon

Today we follow Christ from triumphal entry to the cross, each waypoint of the journey marked by Jesus' compassion for those who would betray, mock, accuse, or do violence to him. Though persecuted and beaten, Jesus the Son of God is not disgraced; instead, he asks forgiveness for those who put him to death. We have walked the Lenten pathway these forty days, each of us invited through baptism to "let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus." We enter this holy week accompanying Jesus to the cross with both grief and thanksgiving in our hearts, trusting in God's redeeming love.

Resurrection of our Lord: Easter ♦ April 20 ♦ 9:00 AM & 10:30 AM

the Rev. Katie Lyon

"The last enemy to be destroyed is death," Paul writes. Today Christ is risen, and we gather together with astonishment and joy. Christ is risen, and we have been set free from the bonds of death. Christ is risen, and we are forgiven. Christ is risen, and with the women at the tomb and Peter, we are amazed. Let us rejoice: Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Second Sunday of Easter ♦ April 27 ♦ 10:00 AM

the Rev. Tom Scornavacchi

In spite of all we have heard and all we have seen, it is often hard to believe. Because it is hard to believe, we will invest ourselves in the Easter mystery for fifty days (a week of weeks). Because it is hard to believe, John the evangelist will provide sign after sign celebrating Jesus' victory over death. Because it is hard to believe, the risen Jesus will return to us again and again in the mystery of holy communion, inviting us to touch and taste his presence, and offering us his peace.

Council Update

from Emmett Borelli Hoh, Youth Representative

The new church council has begun to meet and already it is brimming with new ideas on how we can improve our outreach into the community and further our mission. In our February meeting, we examined the mission of our council and the core values of this church. One of our most important goals is to create a welcoming environment for all to worship. In accordance with that, the council is currently working on a welcome statement for the church website. This statement will serve to outline the supportive community we strive to create within our congregation, and offer reassurance to those who may have felt unwelcome in previous churches. Council is also working to update our current directory and include member photos. Be on the lookout for the next opportunity to get your picture taken, or you can submit a photograph to Crystal at cshirk@atonementwyo.org.

We thank you, yes you, for your support because none of the work our church does is possible without the community that makes up our congregation. We on the council look forward to the coming year and discovering where God calls us as we move forward together.

from the Pastoral Care Coordinator

Our church family is made up of many circles. I'm sure that you are a part of at least one of these circles. Is your circle Faith Formation? or Choir? Perhaps, you join a group for coffee in the narthex before service on Sunday. Or – is your circle that group of familiar faces you count on seeing when you're in your favorite pew on a Sunday morning?

You know when someone is missing from your circle.

You see when they reach for a tissue after a hymn or reading.

And, you act – you reach out. You call. You hug. You pray.

Atonement's Pastoral Care Team is an extension of these many circles – Here are some of the ways we reach out, call, visit, listen, and pray:

- Card and Prayer Shawl Ministry
- Visitation Ministry
- Prayer Team
- Eucharistic Ministers
- Stephen Ministers
- Health Advocacy
- Grief Ministry

The Pastoral Care team meets twice a month to consider who in our church family is in need of prayer or spiritual support. Our goal is to support our pastors so that no one in the congregation slips through the cracks under our watch. Our mission is to keep strong connections to Atonement when our members are most vulnerable.

Let us know when someone in your circle is in need. Reach out to me at ebryan@atonementwyo.org or any of our members: Ken Lord, Sharon Calder, Ray Warmkessel, Lois Hein, Ed Hein, Pastor Katie, and Pastor Art.

Wishing you peace and comfort,
Ellen Bryan

Stewardship Corner

From the Stewardship Team Keepin' it Alive In 2025

2025 is off to a great start! The chili cookoff in February was a huge success with 28 delicious variations judged by around 100 attendees. The event was a lot of fun, but the best part was that we raised over $700 for Lutheran Disaster Relief! And we couldn't have done this without your help. Thank you!

But we've only just begun and we're not resting on our laurels. This year we're looking to continue to build on our success with some old favorites like Humane's Walk for the Animals, Blue Marsh Clean-Up, Pancake breakfasts, Opportunity House, and Safe Trick or Treat. And the enthusiasm from last year must be catching as we're adding, based on suggestions from you, some ongoing programs that could use more volunteers including Family Promise, Pastoral Care, and Groundskeeping, along with two new volunteer opportunities, a Stewardship skit and a Christmas Cookie event.

As we continue to build on reaching up, reaching in, and reaching out, we've also taken some time to reflect on what Stewardship at Atonement is all about. Yes, it's everything we do after we say, "We believe", but what then? With that in mind it feels like Stewardship here at our church is really about caring as Jesus would have us do (reach up), commitment to doing the best we can (reach in), and community to make this world a better place (reach out). So going forward, you'll see this tagline (caring, commitment, community), added to everything we communicate to you and everything we do. We hope you find this helpful.

So watch this newsletter, the Sunday morning slide announcements, and the bulletin for ongoing details as we navigate this exciting time together, because as we've said before, without God's help and your dedication none of this would be possible. We are so grateful for all of you.

Let's keep the momentum going! Volunteer for the events of your choice today!

Please contact any member of your Stewardship team: Cara Pepper, Bob Eisenbrown, Jill Scheidt, or Virginia Rush with questions or suggestions!

God bless us all!

Family Promise

Too many families experience homelessness. We have a great resource in Berks County called Family Promise of Berks County which helps families experiencing homelessness with a place to stay, vocational and interview skills training, job hunting, and much more, all while keeping the family together.

Family Promise is using three rental properties that shelter 3-6 families (up to 20 people). The families move on to permanent housing as quickly as possible. Staying in one place during their time with Family Promise allows families to have bedtime routines for the children and more flexible work schedules. Since the families are in houses, they have access to a kitchen. Providing grocery gift cards instills self-sufficiency and empowers the client to oversee something when much of their current situation leads them to feel powerless, while cooked meals once a week provides a welcome break during this stressful time.

Atonement plans to provide prepared meals on Mondays, and donate grocery gift cards to cover groceries for the rest of the week. For the families staying in April, we are also collecting items for Easter baskets! Online users can use the links below to sign up to help serve our Family Promise guests with delicious food, groceries and hope!
