

ATONEMENT IN ACTION

From Pastor Katie

Somehow, we are already well into the season of Lent! Perhaps for some of you, it's been easy to stick to giving something up or trying something new. Or perhaps, you struggle to stay on track with life, let alone add in a Lenten discipline. No matter where you are on the journey, know that Jesus still shows up for you and there is still time to get involved in worship and faith formation.

We are studying Dietrich Bonhoeffer in the adult faith formation hour (Sunday mornings at 8:45am) in Room F122. Jen Dauber, our preschool director, is also starting a book club on Sunday mornings at the same time in the parlor for moms (and dads) who need more peace in their lives that will run for the next three weeks. We continue to gather on Wednesday evenings with Common Ground for a light supper at 6pm and worship with Holden Evening Prayer at 7pm. All are welcome to an intergenerational Lenten workshop on Sunday, March 24th at 8:45am in Lundin Hall. We will be making resurrection gardens and doing other fun projects. Check out the schedule for Holy Week and Easter Sunday morning services. (Please note that our times are different on Easter Sunday: 9:30am & 11am!) No matter where we are on our Lenten journey, Jesus still shows up for us. Thanks be to God!

Peace and love,
Pastor Katie

Holy Week at Atonement

Journey with us through the events during the last week of Jesus' life – from the gates of Jerusalem, to the Upper Room, to the foot of the cross, to the empty tomb!

Palm Sunday/Sunday of the Passion ♦ March 24, 10:00 a.m.

We wave palms in celebration today as Christ comes into our midst, then we follow with trepidation as his path leads to the cross.

Maundy Thursday ♦ March 28, 7:00 p.m.

We remember Christ's last meal with his disciples, but our central focus is his commandment to give and receive love in humble service to one another, embodied by Jesus as he washed the disciples' feet.

Good Friday ♦ March 29, 7:00 p.m.

Life and death stand side by side as we enter into Good Friday, joining the disciples at the foot of the cross.

Easter Vigil ♦ March 30, 7:30 p.m.

Together with Common Ground Recovery Community in Lundin Hall, we gather around fire, word, water, bread, and cup, proclaiming through story and song that ours is a God who continuously brings life out of death.

NEW TIMES!

Easter Sunday ♦ March 31, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

This is the day the Lord has made! Christ is risen, and through him all creation is made new! Festive worship at two services, both featuring Basic'ly Brass and a Festival Choir. Christ is risen indeed! Nursery available at both services.

Worship for Sundays in March

Third Sunday in Lent ♦ March 3—10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

The third covenant in this year's Lenten readings is the central one of Israel's history: the gift of the law to those God freed from slavery.

The commandments begin with the statement that because God alone has freed us from the powers that oppressed us, we are to let nothing else claim first place in our lives. When Jesus throws the merchants out of the temple, he is defending the worship of God alone and rejecting the ways commerce and profit-making can become our gods.

The Ten Commandments are essential to our baptismal call: centered first in God's liberating love, we strive to live out justice and mercy in our communities and the world.

Fourth Sunday in Lent, Bear Creek Camp ♦ March 10 10:00 AM ♦ Kaitlyn Blend, preaching, the Rev. Art Wyse, presiding

The fourth of the Old Testament promises providing a baptismal lens this Lent is the promise God makes to Moses: those who look on the bronze serpent will live. In today's gospel Jesus says he will be lifted up on the cross like the serpent, so that those who look to him in faith will live. When we receive the sign of the cross in baptism, that cross becomes the sign we can look to in faith for healing, for restored relationship to God, for hope when we are dying.

Fifth Sunday in Lent ♦ March 17

10:00 AM ♦ Seminarian April Mulvey preaching, the Rev. Katie Lyon presiding

God promises Jeremiah that a "new covenant" will be made in the future: a covenant that will allow all the people to know God by heart. The church sees this promise fulfilled in Christ, who draws all people to himself when he is lifted up on the cross. Our baptismal covenant draws us to God's heart through Christ and draws God's love and truth into our hearts. We join together in worship, sharing in word, song, and meal, and leave strengthened to share God's love with all the world.

Sunday of the Passion/Palm Sunday ♦ March 24—10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

This week, the center of the church's year, is one of striking contrasts: Jesus rides into Jerusalem surrounded by shouts of glory, only to be left alone to die on the cross, abandoned by even his closest friends. Mark's gospel presents Jesus in his complete human vulnerability: agitated, grieved, scared, forsaken. Though we lament Christ's suffering and all human suffering, we also expect God's salvation: in the wine and bread, Jesus promises that his death will mark a new covenant with all people. We enter this holy week thirsty for the completion of God's astonishing work.

Resurrection of our Lord: Easter Sunday ♦ March 31

NEW TIMES: 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

Christ is risen! Jesus is alive, and God has swallowed up death forever. With Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, we may feel astonished and confused, unsure of what to make of the empty tomb. But this is why we gather: to proclaim, witness, praise, and affirm the liberating reality of Christ's death and resurrection.

In word and feast, we celebrate God's unending love, and depart to share this good news with all the world. Alleluia!

Meet Seminarian April Mulvey

Greetings Atonement Congregation! My name is April Mulvey. I am a first-year seminarian at United Lutheran Seminary, and I have been fulfilling my field education requirement here at Atonement since last September. I am the proud wife to my husband, Billy, a disabled combat Marine Corps Veteran. My son, Justin, is a Sergeant in the United States Army and is currently stationed in Germany. Both my daughter and my husband's daughter have the exact same name, Brittney Nicole. I have also been a member of the recovering community for over 28 years.

My home church is right down the hall in Lundin Hall—Common Ground. I have been an active member there for over 15 years, where I started to make coffee, graduated to altar guild, and serve on the Steering Committee, as well as serve on several outreach ministries. If you are free on a Wednesday night, our service begins at 7:00 p.m.

My favorite color is purple; I love unicorns, and anything that sparkles, which is why I love being here at Atonement—everyone has become a sparkle in my life. I want to thank the congregation for this amazing opportunity to allow me to serve you all. Please come and introduce yourself to me so I can get to know you better.

Blessings to you all!

From Deacon Tom

End of Life Preparedness Seminars

We spend considerable time and effort planning various aspects of our life – education, career, family, vacations, just to name a few. However, we usually neglect to plan for our end of life. We postpone or avoid completing an advance directive/living will, choosing a power of attorney (POA), organizing our finances and estate, discussing funeral arrangements.

Atonement will be sponsoring a 7-week series of end of life preparedness seminars in the nave each Sunday morning from 9AM-9:30AM, beginning April 7 and concluding on May 19. Our guest speakers will discuss the following topics :

1. why this conversation is important and suggestions on “how to initiate the talk”
2. medical issues (advance directives, POA, POLST, etc.)
3. legal concerns (will, trusts, power of attorney, etc.)
4. financial planning and organization
5. funeral options and planning
6. document organization
7. spiritual discussion

Please make an effort to attend these important and informative seminars. Please invite family, friends, neighbors, co-workers to this series. Everyone is not only welcome, but encouraged to attend.

Planning and preparing for one’s end of life can be a valuable gift you give to your family.

Ken Lord, M.D.

2024 Chili Cookoff

Our 2024 Chili Cookoff was a huge success! With 20 contestants and over 125 people in attendance we raise slightly over $800 for the group attending the Youth Gathering this summer. A huge thank you to Sweet Ride Ice Cream for providing something cold and sweet after all that hot and spicy!

This year's winners:

- Best Spicy – Amanda Garipoli “Beef & Bean Chili”
- Best Presentation – Jillian Tinnemeyer “Black Bean Chili with Mango Salsa”
- Best Interesting – Jillian Tinnemeyer “Black Bean Chili with Mango Salsa”
- Best Vegetarian – Ben Ferenchick – “Vegetarian Chili”
- Best Non-Beef – Fran Tieman “Turkey Sausage Chili”

Thank you to all the volunteers: those who made chili, set up and cleaned up, made or brought cornbread, provided water, and helped staff the cookoff. Without all of you this event wouldn't have happened or been as much fun. See you all next year.

Coming soon – the Stewardship calendar of events for the rest of 2024!

Council meets the third Monday of the month

Meet New Council Member, Kate Aurentz

Having been baptized, confirmed, and married at Atonement, I am proud to say that I am a life-long member of Atonement and am grateful to be able to worship alongside my husband, Dave, two sons, mother, father, brother and his family.

My father, Bill Laubach, is another life-long member. While I hold dear to my heart our Lutheran theology and, in particular, our understanding of God's grace, I am also grateful that God has had me journey, worship, and pray at times with people with varying Christian traditions and understandings. I believe that we have much to learn from one another.

God has gifted me with the heart of a student and teacher. I am a reading specialist at Wyomissing Hills Elementary Center. I cherish the times my husband and I facilitated adult formation classes at Atonement which blessed us with a deeper relationship not only with God, but also with those in the groups. I am excited to join the other members of Council as we strive to discern how God is calling us to grow as a congregation and deepen our faith and commitment as a church family.

Meet New Council Member, Robin Border

I grew up in the Oley Valley and have been a Lutheran since birth. Frieden's Lutheran Church in Oley was my family church and I was a member there through high school and college. When I moved to the Boyertown area, I transferred my membership to St. John's Lutheran Church in Boyertown and was an active member there for 46 years.

Three years ago I moved to Wyomissing and started the search for a new church. Atonement was the perfect fit! Everyone I met here was friendly, welcoming, and I immediately felt at home. For me, volunteering at Atonement was the perfect way to meet new people, make new friends, and serve my community. I especially enjoy attending Faith Formation and Common Ground.

I have two children, four grandchildren, and I spend a lot of happy hours babysitting. In my spare time I like to travel, spend time with friends, read, and spend time outdoors. I am honored by the opportunity to serve on council and I look forward to being part of Atonement's exciting future!

Meet New Council Member, Scott Boyer

Scott (raised a Catholic) and his wife Karen (raised an Episcopalian) visited Atonement on Palm Sunday over 20 years ago. They met Luther Route. Scott soon became active with the Youth Group and gave skiing and snowboarding lessons when Pastor Luther ran the Youth Group ski week-ends. Scott previously served on Church Council when Pastor Summy was Senior Pastor.

In addition to Council, Scott is on the Grounds Crew, Altar Guild, usher team, and will soon become Tom Gresh’s backup (along with Bob Eisenbrown) as Tom transitions to retirement.

Scott was a Process Engineer for over 36 years at Carpenter Technology before he retired in 2020. Some of his hobbies include mountain biking, fly fishing, skiing, and dabbling with his violin. He and Karen enjoy camping with their two Golden Retrievers.

Meet New Council Member, John Lehr

My wife Patty and I joined Atonement in 2018. As native Berks Countians, we both were raised Lutheran. We married in 1981 and attended St. John’s Lutheran for thirty plus years and both served on council and taught Sunday School. We have two adult sons; Michael and Morgen live in NJ, with twin daughters, Betty and Jane. Jordan lives in Columbia, SC with man’s best friend, a GSP named Lucy! When visiting, they worship with us at Atonement.

Patty was on Atonement Council and currently volunteers scheduling greeters. She is a registered nurse at Tower Health, for over 40 years. She is a master baker!

Since joining Atonement, I serve as a lector, usher, eucharistic minister, pastoral call committee member, property maintenance team member and chair the volunteer groundskeeping team. I am also a struggling chili contest participant! I enjoy attending Sunday School and participate in a weekly Zoom bible study.

In my past, I served as a little league football and wrestling coach and a Lions Club member. I am an avid DIYer. I am a coating sales manager in the greater Philadelphia market.

Patty and I enjoy the Jersey shore, Charleston SC and the Florida Keys. Our granddaughters have stolen our hearts!

It is an honor to serve the dedicated and growing members of Atonement to the glory of the Holy Trinity. Atonement offers excellence in music, Christian values, preschool and welcoming to the community. It is exciting to witness the growth we are experiencing.

Meet Youth Council Representative, Sofia Arana Lyon

I am Pastor Katie’s oldest daughter. I just turned 17 in Jamaica on my school’s Marine Biology program. I am an eleventh grader at Wilson High School. Some of my hobbies are reading, singing, writing my own songs, playing piano and guitar along with anything else musical. I am currently involved in our school musical, The Little Mermaid, as a mersister. This July I will also be playing Janis in Mean Girls The Musical through the Sycamore Stage Theater Company in Robesonia.

I have enjoyed getting involved here at Atonement through singing, serving as Sunday morning sexton, and worshipping, especially with Common Ground. I am happy to serve as your youth representative and look forward to bringing a strong voice and new ideas.

Special Congregational Meeting—March 17

Please plan to join us for a brief Special Congregational Meeting to be held March 17, to vote on constitutional and bylaw changes recommended by council so that our governing documents more accurately reflect the governing structure under which we currently operate.

Faith Formation Hour: (Sundays 8:45am-9:45am)

A Place at the Table:

Our Place at the Table group completed their lessons in January. On January 28th, they participated in worship by pouring water to symbolize their baptism, delivered readings about The Last Supper and received their First Holy Communion. They especially loved the special treat of real bread for this special occasion!

Bible Study:

On February 4th, five children received their Bibles from Pastor Katie during worship. They met for the next three Sundays to read and learn to use their Bibles. Then on March 3rd they will participate in worship during the children's message "Did you know?" skit and deliver Bible readings.

Worship: (Sunday's 10am)

During the 10 a.m. worship service children ages 3-2nd grade can participate in the worship service with the children's message as well as a chapel time in the privacy room. Chapel time often includes a story, craft and activity or game. Children preschool age and younger are supervised in F126.

In order to help families with the costs of this life-changing event, we are holding a matching funds campaign this winter. Thanks to an anonymous donor and some "leftover" youth funds, we will be able to match up to $6000 in donations toward the gathering costs.
