

ATONEMENT IN ACTION

Guiding Principles:

Jesus is Lord.

Everyone is welcome.

Love changes people.

Everyone has something to offer.

The world needs what we have.

from Reclaiming the "L" Word

God has freed us for the Journey of Discipleship with Jesus:

Worship that leads to Formation that leads to Fellowship that leads to Servanthood.

From Pastor Katie

The day of Pentecost will blow into our midst on Sunday, May 19th. We will celebrate with a F.R.O.G. party to end our Faith Formation hour for this school year (see Miss Caitlyn’s article for more info). Our End of Life Preparedness Seminar will also wrap up that day. Then a lively worship where all are welcome will happen at 10am, followed by a pancake breakfast in Lundin Hall. What a day to celebrate in so many wonderful ways!

Pentecost is the day when the Holy Spirit spread like wildfire in the midst of the disciples and friends. This means that the Holy Spirit will spread like wildfire in our midst. It will make us more confident in spreading God’s message of love and grace. May we all feel the stirring of the Holy Spirit, not just on Pentecost, but everyday. For God continues to show up among us to remind us that we are loved and called to share God’s love with the world.

Happy Pentecost. Come Holy Spirit!

Peace and love,
Pastor Katie

Worship for Sundays in May

The Sixth Sunday of Easter ♦ May 5

10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon ♦ New Member Welcome

This Sunday's image of the life the risen Christ shares with us is the image of friendship. We are called to serve others as Jesus came to serve; but for John's gospel, the image of servanthood is too hierarchical, too distant, to capture the essence of life with Christ. Friendship captures the love, the joy, the deep mutuality of the relationship into which Christ invites us. The Greeks believed that true friends are willing to die for each other. This is the mutual love of Christian community commanded by Christ and enabled by the Spirit.

The Seventh Sunday of Easter ♦ May 12

10:00 AM ♦ the John Richter

The gospel for Easter's seventh Sunday is always taken from the long prayer Jesus prays for his followers in John's gospel on the night before his death, and always includes Jesus' desire that his followers will be one as he and the Father are one. This oneness is not mere doctrinal agreement or institutional unity, but mutual abiding, interpenetrating life, mutual love, and joy. This oneness is the work of the Spirit whom we have received but also await. Come, Holy Spirit!

Day of Pentecost ♦ May 19

10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

Fifty days after Easter, we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. Crossing all boundaries that would separate us, the Spirit brings the wideness of God's mercy to places we least expect it—to a crowd of strangers of different lands and tongues, to dry bones, to our weak hearts. Jesus promises his disciples that they will be accompanied by the Holy Spirit, and that this Spirit reveals the truth. We celebrate that we too have been visited with this same Spirit. Guided by the truth, we join together in worship, and then disperse to share the fullness of Christ's love with the world.

The Holy Trinity ♦ May 26

10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon ♦ Afghan Presentation for High School Seniors

When we say God is the triune God, we are saying something about who God is beyond, before, and after the universe: that there is community within God. Our experience of this is reflected in Paul's words today. When we pray to God as Jesus prayed to his Abba (an everyday, intimate parental address), the Spirit prays within us, creating between us and God the same relationship Jesus has with the one who sent him.

Gifts of Stocks or Securities

Gifts of stocks or securities are always welcome donations. If you plan to give stock or securities, please notify the office of the pending donation to Atonement’s Schwab Account at Weik Investments (the office will provide account number, etc.), along with the purpose for which you are donating it, the name of the stock, its value, where it is coming from, and who the donor is. Don’t forget that your offering can be given by credit card on our website or by scanning the QR code to the right with your smart phone.

ELCA Youth Gathering Matching Funds Campaign

We are very excited to have 11 Atonement members and friends traveling to the ELCA Youth Gathering in New Orleans this summer (8 teenagers and 3 chaperones). In order to help families with the costs of this life-changing event, we are holding a matching funds campaign this winter. Thanks to an anonymous donor and some “leftover” youth funds, we will be able to match up to $6000 in donations toward the gathering costs. Please help us with this fundraiser – every gift, no matter how large or small, will help us toward our goal. Checks can be made payable to Atonement Lutheran Church with “Youth Gathering Matching Funds” written in the memo line. Thanks in advance for your help!

Atonement Book Awards for High School Seniors Applications due May 1!

Atonement is pleased once again to offer two $1000 book awards to high school seniors who are going on to higher education. These two awards have been combined into one application form and one interview with our Book Awards Committee. Interested seniors can find the application and filing instructions at atonementwyo.org, online readers click here:

Directory Photos

Did you know that we have an online church directory that you can access from your phone or computer? Some family entries include photos and some do not. If you would like your photo added to the directory, we will have a photographer here before and after church on Sunday, May 5 and Sunday, September 15. Please consider adding your smiling face to our directory!

We are also planning a session to demonstrate how to use the directory and easily pull it up on your phone. Details will be announced when we have them. Contact Crystal at cshirk@atonementwyo.org if you would like more information about accessing the directory.

Worship for Sundays in June

Time After Pentecost ♦ June 2
10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

Deuteronomy makes clear that sabbath-keeping is meant for the welfare of all. God delivered the Israelites out of slavery, so they should observe this freedom with a day of rest. No one should work seven days a week; even slaves and foreigners should be able to rest. Yet human beings can turn even the most liberating religious practice into a life-destroying rule. Jesus does not reject sabbath-keeping, but defends its original life-enhancing meaning. Our worship and our religious way of life are to lead to restoration: the hungry being fed and the sick being healed.

Time After Pentecost ♦ June 9
10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

A house divided against itself cannot stand. Jesus makes this observation in light of charges that he is possessed. He is possessed, not by a demon, but by the Holy Spirit. We who have received the Holy Spirit through baptism have been joined to Christ's death and resurrection and knit together in the body of Christ. Those with whom we sing and pray this day are Jesus' family. With them we go forth in peace to do the will of God.

Time After Pentecost ♦ June 16
10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

The mustard seed becomes a great shrub that shelters the birds, recalling ancient images of the tree of life. We'd expect a cedar or a sequoia, but Jesus finds the power of God better imaged in a tiny, no-account seed. It's not the way we expect divine activity to look. Yet the tree of life is here, in the cross around which we gather, the tree into which we are grafted through baptism, the true vine that nourishes us with its fruit in the cup we share. It may not appear all that impressive, but while nobody's looking it grows with a power beyond our understanding.

VBS SUNDAY ♦ June 23
10:00 AM ♦ the Rev. Katie Lyon

In story and song, Vacation Bible School participants share what they have learned: how to mend God's world by feeding hungry people, helping those who are sick or hurting, learning to forgive, praying for those in need, and resting in God's love.

Time After Pentecost ♦ June 30
10:00 AM ♦ the Tom Scornavacchi

A woman finds healing by touching Jesus' cloak, and a girl is restored to life when he takes her by the hand. In both cases a boundary is crossed: in Jesus' time the hemorrhaging woman was considered ritually unclean, polluting others by her touch, and anyone who touched a corpse also became unclean. In Mark's gospel Jesus breaks down barriers, from his first meal at a tax collector's house to his last breath on the cross as the temple curtain is torn in two. We dare to touch Jesus in our "uncleanness" and to live as a community that defines no one as an outsider.

Atonement's Stephen Ministers: Helping You Feel God's Presence When You Face Difficult Times

Did you know that Atonement's Pastoral Care Team includes Stephen Ministers? The representative for Stephen Ministry on the Pastoral Care Team is Ray Warmkessel. Ray has been a Stephen Minister at Atonement since 2005 and trained as a Stephen Leader in 2006.

Stephen Ministers are lay congregation members who are trained to provide confidential one-to-one Christian care to people who are experiencing a difficult time in life. It might be a serious medical diagnosis, losing your job, a death in the family, divorce, or other challenge. Stephen Ministers meet with you weekly to listen to you, encourage you, and provide spiritual and emotional support. Atonement's Stephen Ministers are here to walk with you.

Atonement's Stephen Ministers are Michelle Endy, Rachel Gambone, Ed & Lois Hein, Ted Hershberger, Dan & Eve Kimball, Bill Laubach, Bob Sharets, Ray Warmkessel and Sue Ziemer. You will see us on Sundays wearing our blue name badges. Please feel free to talk with us about this Christ-centered caring ministry.

What is it like to be in a caring relationship with a Stephen Minister? Here is what one Atonement member says: When my daughter died, I was very sad and lonely. Lois Hein asked if I would like a Stephen Minister and I said "yes." I could talk about anything, and she would listen. At the end of our visit we would pray together. I really felt like God was present with us. I am so glad I said "yes" to a Stephen Minister.

If you want to talk about entering a caring relationship with a Stephen Minister, please contact either Lois Hein at lhein@atonementwyo.org, or Ray Warmkessel at rwarmkessel@comcast.net, or call the church office at 610-375-3512. We are here to extend Christ-centered care.

Atonement Small Groups

We did some small group pilots in the fall where people got to know Pastor Katie and each other a little better as well as talk about Atonement. It is now time to invite others to join us on this journey and you are invited!

We will gather for about an hour and a half in someone's home where we will spend some time getting to know one another with refreshments. Then we will have a small group activity and a short Bible study to help us think and talk about God's plans for Atonement. Anyone is welcome. Please do not feel like you need to have the answers or will be pushed to talk. Come out and experience community with us and have fun in the process.

Dates are:

- Tuesday, May 7 from 2 to 3:30pm
- Wednesday, May 8 from 7 to 8:30pm
- Thursday, May 16 from 7 to 8:30pm
- Wednesday, May 22 from 2 to 3:30pm.

Please sign up for only one gathering. RSVP by calling the office or online readers can use the link for sign-up genius:

Preschool News

From Jen Dauber, Preschool Director

The preschool enjoyed the spring weather throughout April as the classes learned about farm animals, weather, ecology, and flowers. We celebrated our preschool with a fabulous Preschool Sunday service and Art Show on April 7! It was fun to see our preschoolers sing our favorite chapel songs for their families and the congregation. The week of April 15, we held our annual Trike-a-Thon for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. We collected monetary donations and the children brought in coins for a "Coins for Kids" collection. We ended April with the arrival of chicks from Swartz Farm.

In May, we will focus on our mommies, frogs and turtles, sea animals in the ocean, and summer fun! The classes will spend time making special gifts and learning songs for their moms. We will host Mother's Day Celebrations the week of May 8. The preschool year ends on May 23 and 24 with in-class ice cream parties. We will host graduation in the church for the fours and PreK classes the morning of May 24. Last but certainly not least we will celebrate the preschool staff with an appreciation luncheon on May 28 in Lundin Hall. Crave Café will provide lunch.

The 2024-25 school year enrollment is 143 students. Some students are enrolled in multiple classes, so we have 191 spaces filled. We still have availability in our Toddler classes, Tues/Thurs three-year-old classes, and recently added afternoon 4's on Mon/Wed/Fri. Registration information is on our website. Contact Mrs. Dauber (610-375-8049 or jdauber@atonementwyo.org) with questions and to schedule a tour.

Summer Camps 2024 – We had an overwhelming response to our summer camps this year. Within several hours all camps but the Kindergarten Kickstart were full, and waitlists started. I have never seen anything like it! One preschool mom said, "Summer Camp registration sold out as quick as Taylor Swift concert tickets." Our camp offerings are July 8-12: Explorer Camp, July 22-26: Weird Sea Creatures Naturalist Camp and August 5-9: Preschool Teddy Bear Storytime Camp and Kindergarten Kickstart.

Vacation Bible School

June 17-21, 9am—11:30am | VBS Sunday, June 24

This VBS invites kids to be menders in God's world. As they make connections between Bible stories and mending actions, they'll discover simple ways to live out faith in daily life.

Register as a participant or helper online by going to atonementwyo.org, then selecting MINISTRIES from the top menu, then click CHILDREN / YOUTH, then scroll down to Vacation Bible School, or contact Caitlyn at cmarella@atonementwyo.org

From Caitlyn Marrella, Director of Christian Formation

Faith Formation Hour: (Sundays 8:45am-9:45am)

Faith Formation is a time our children work with peers of the same age to learn about God. They look forward to seeing familiar faces each week but are excited for new faces as well. There are three groups that meet regularly: preschool, K-grade 2 and grades 3-6.

Worship: (Sundays 10am)

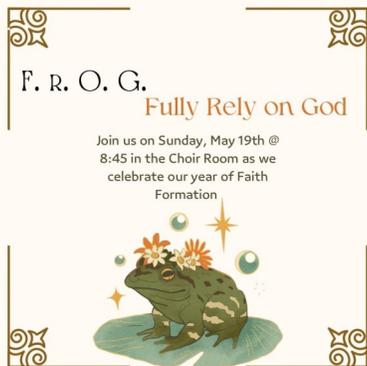

During the 10 a.m. worship service children ages 3-2nd grade can participate in the worship service with the children’s message as well as a chapel time in the privacy room. Chapel time often includes a story, craft and activity or game. Children preschool age and younger are supervised in F126. The livestream of the service is played in the nursery.

Fully Rely on God (F.R.O.G.)

Join us on Sunday, May 19th @ 8:45 in the Choir Room as we celebrate our year of Faith Formation.

Remember, children of all ages are welcome at Atonement! We have many programs to accommodate all ages. All teachers have clearances and are excited for the opportunity to teach about God. We can’t wait for you to join us!

NO FAITH FORMATION FOR CHILDREN ON MOTHER’S DAY, MAY 12

If you haven't seen it—stop by the Sunday School bulletin board to read a special message about Jesus!

Stewardship Corner

Stewardship

Thank you to all who have volunteered for our first 3 "Reach Out" Opportunities. If you haven't volunteered yet but are still interested in these events, please reach out to Bob Eisenbrown at eisenr1952@gmail.com. Our Opportunity House Group serves lunch the third Saturday of each month. We are also gearing up for the first Blue Marsh clean-up day on June 22nd.

Coming in May—Please join us May 19th for our next pancake breakfast. It will be a great way to catch up with your church family before the summer starts. Proceeds from the breakfast will go toward the 2024 Youth Gathering. Breakfast will be similar to our previous one: Pancakes, sausage, bacon and the return of our yogurt, fruit and granola bar which was a huge hit. This will be the gluten free option for that day. We look forward to seeing you there.

Coming in July—Atonement will march in the July 4th parade. We need marchers, candy throwers and people to donate candy for the event [preferably candy that doesn't melt in the heat]. As we get closer, there will be float decorating as well. See any member of the Stewardship Committee (Cara, Ellen, or Bob) if you'd be willing to donate and/or participate. We're also looking for someone who might have a flatbed with sides that we could use and someone with a truck who can pull the float as well. Looking forward to celebrating our nation with all of you.

Reach Out for the Big Cheese 8 Event

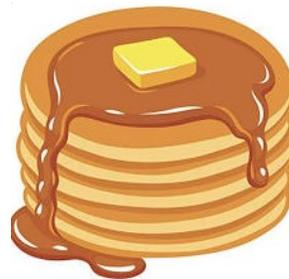

The United Way's Big Cheese 8 Event is on Friday, June 14 from 6 - 9 PM at Penn State Berks Beaver Athletic and Wellness Center in Spring Township. About 500 people will volunteer to package 250,000 nutritionally fortified macaroni and cheese meals along with apple cinnamon oatmeal meals. The meals are distributed by Helping Harvest, a food bank serving Berks and Schuylkill Counties. Meals are also provided to the Reading School District for students in need throughout the year. Each meal costs about 25 cents and includes enough ingredients to make about six servings.

As part of Atonement's ongoing commitment to "reach out" and support our community, this event is another wonderful opportunity for us to help. We need at least eight volunteers to pack meals from 6 - 9 pm on Friday evening June 14. Registration for the event is very competitive and opens on Monday, May 13 at 12 noon. Last year all of the slots were filled within 30 minutes! So, there is no guarantee that Team Atonement will get a slot, but it would be fun to try.

For more information or to register to be on our team, please contact Robin Border at rkjohn6@aol.com or call at 610-858-9262.

Upcoming Stewardship Events:

- May 4—Humane Society walk
- May 12—Opportunity House presentation to congregation
- May 18—Opportunity House lunch
- May 19—Pancake Breakfast
- June 15—Opportunity House lunch
- June 22—Blue Marsh clean-up day

Pancake Breakfast

Join us after worship on Sunday, May 19 for a pancake breakfast in Lundin Hall!

Atonement is hosting the 2024 Northeastern PA Synod Assembly!

Saturday, June 8, 8:30-4:30 p.m.

It is a great honor to have been chosen to host the annual meeting of all the congregations in our synod, and volunteers are still needed to help with hosting! We need help setting up, cleaning up, serving lunch, and more! Volunteer shifts are in two hour blocks, so if you have two hours to spare on June 8 and are willing to help, please sign up here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040445AFAA22AAF85-48912287-nepa#/> or contact Crystal in the office.
