

ATONEMENT IN ACTION

Come As You Are. Follow Jesus. Serve Together.

Here at Atonement we continue to lean into where God is calling us to be the church in this day and age. We have redefined our top values: welcoming, serving, caring, community. We have established that everything we say and do needs to have these values at their core. Then we needed to come up with a new tagline, a line that all can say and live out. We surveyed the congregation. The staff narrowed down the results and the church council narrowed them down even further until we came up with our new tagline: Come as you are. Follow Jesus. Serve together.

Then we needed to showcase our new tagline on a Sunday morning. When we chose the Sunday and saw that it was the first Sunday of Lent and the temptation of Jesus, we were tempted to change the reading. This is not the most upbeat text to use to get people excited to follow Jesus and showcase our new tagline. Come as you are. Follow Jesus... into the wilderness where you'll be tempted by sin and the devil. There's a reason that this part of the journey didn't make it into our tagline. Yet, the wilderness is also part of our journey with Jesus.

For you can't have resurrection without the cross. You can't have new life without death.

And it's Jesus that begins this journey for us. That's the message we get to share at Atonement.

Jesus is the one in charge. We get to come as we are and we are transformed. We are transformed into a life that allows us to follow Jesus into the wilderness. We get to love others as Christ loves us and we do it together. We get to serve at places like Common Ground, Bethany Food Pantry, Family Promise, and Opportunity House. We get to go out into the community and listen for where else we can help. We are transformed by others' stories.

I can't wait to see where else Jesus will take us this Lent and beyond.

Come as you are. Follow Jesus. Serve together.

Peace and love,
Pastor Katie

Worship for Sundays in March

Second Sunday in Lent ♦ March 1 ♦ 10:00 AM
the Rev. Katie Lyon

During Lent we journey with all those around the world who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil. In today's gospel Jesus tells Nicodemus that he must be born of water and Spirit. At the font we are given a new birth as children of God. As God made a covenant with Abraham, in baptism God promises to raise us up with Christ to new life. From worship we are sent forth to proclaim God's love for all the world.

Third Sunday in Lent ♦ March 8 ♦ 10:00 AM
the Rev. Katie Lyon

In today's gospel the Samaritan woman asks Jesus for water, an image of our thirst for God. Jesus offers living water, a sign of God's grace flowing from the waters of baptism. The early church used this gospel and those of the next two Sundays to deepen baptismal reflection during the final days of preparation before baptism at Easter. As we journey to the resurrection feast, Christ comes among us in word, bath, and meal—offering us the life-giving water of God's mercy and forgiveness.

Fourth Sunday in Lent ♦ March 15 ♦ 10:00 AM
the Rev. Rick Summy

Baptism is sometimes called enlightenment. The gospel for this Sunday is the story of the man born blind healed by Christ. "I was blind, now I see," declares the man. In baptism God opens our eyes to see the truth of who we are: God's beloved children. As David was anointed king of Israel, in baptism God anoints our head with oil, and calls us to bear witness to the light of Christ in our daily lives.

First Sunday in Lent ♦ March 22 ♦ 10:00 AM
the Rev. Katie Lyon

In today's gospel Jesus reveals his power over death by raising Lazarus from the dead. The prophet Ezekiel prophesies God breathing new life into dry bones. To those in exile or living in the shadows of death, these stories proclaim God's promise of resurrection. In baptism we die with Christ that we might also be raised with him to new life. At the Easter Vigil we will welcome the newly baptized as we remember God's unfailing promise in our baptism.

Sunday of the Passion/Palm Sunday ♦ March 29 ♦ 10:00 AM
the Rev. Katie Lyon

Today, we encounter the paradox that defines our faith: Jesus Christ is glorified king and humiliated servant. We too are full of paradox: like Peter, we fervently desire to follow Christ, but find ourselves afraid, denying God. We wave palms in celebration today as Christ comes into our midst, and we follow with trepidation as his path leads to death on the cross. Amid it all we are invited into this paradoxical promise of life through Christ's broken body and outpoured love in a meal of bread and wine. We begin this week that stands at the center of the church year, anticipating the completion of God's astounding work.

Church Council Update from Tyler Good, Council President

Council at Atonement is starting off 2026 strong! With the help of the congregation, we have almost finished developing our strategic plan. Council has been able to identify where the congregation feels we are being called to serve our neighbors using the focus groups volunteers held in their homes a few months ago. We are in the final stages of creating a plan with attainable goals for our Church to show Christ's love to each other, as well as our community. In the coming months I encourage you to listen to the spirit's call as new opportunities to get involved crop up. Let us reach into each other by serving together, reach out by shining a light to our neighbor, and reach up by listening to where God is calling. In doing so, I believe we will find God reaching down to us in ways we did not expect.

Class of 2026 Council Members

Amelia Eastman

I'm a junior at Wilson High School and have been a member of Atonement my entire life, including being baptized and confirmed here. At Atonement, you will often find me involved in children's activities including teaching Faith Formation and assisting with Chapel Time on Sundays. I always look forward to leading the preschool group during Vacation Bible School each summer.

In my spare time, I volunteer for many activities. I am a Morale Captain for my school's Mini-THON, which raises money and awareness for pediatric cancer. Additionally, I am the Junior Class Treasurer and serve as the Public Relations Chair of my school's Student Government Association. I also play the violin in my school's orchestra. A big part of my life is spent on the dance floor. I have danced competitively for many years, performing hiphop, lyrical, and jazz routines. My team competes on weekends in the spring throughout the region. The last few years we have been fortunate enough to qualify for Nationals in July. During the winter, I am also a member of my school's Dance Team and perform at boys' basketball games.

I'm looking forward to the opportunity to serve Atonement in a new, meaningful way.

Jacqueline Lepera

My name is Jacqueline Lepera. I work in higher education as an adjunct instructor and am currently a doctoral candidate. My faith is central to my life and guides my commitment to service, education, and community. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve on the Congregational Council and look forward to supporting the mission and ministries of the church through faithful leadership and collaboration.

Tyler Good

Hello! My name is Tyler Good. I live in Reading with my husband and 3 dogs. I have been attending Atonement for about 5 years. I have had the pleasure of serving on council for the last 3 years. I have learned a lot about the church in that time, and I look forward to the challenge of serving as president of council. Atonement is in a great spot for growth. Council has been working on developing strategic plan to guide the church as we look to the future. I am excited to continue this work as we cultivate Christ centered community within our walls and beyond.

Dave Hershey

I live in Wyomissing with my wife, Emily, our kids, Junia (grade 9) and Eli (grade 6), and our dog, Johnny. Emily and I will celebrate our twentieth anniversary this year, which is exciting, so I wanted to share! I am the Communications and Development Coordinator at Berks Community Health Center (BCHC) in Reading. Before working at BCHC I served for many years as a campus chaplain at Penn State Berks. In 2023 I was elected to the Wyomissing School Board (and I would appreciate your support for my reelection in 2027!). I also serve the Board for the BCIU, where I recently joined the executive team as Board Secretary. I have always enjoyed being involved in whatever my kids are doing, so I serve on the committee of Scout Troop 413 as volunteer coordinator.

In my spare time I am probably reading - I read fiction (Stephen King is my favorite), history (as they say, those who do not learn from the past are doomed to repeat it), spirituality, philosophy, theology, and anything else that strikes me as interesting. I also enjoy hiking and playing tabletop board games.

Jennifer Nied

Jen and her family have been members at Atonement since 2018. After learning more about Atonement through her children, Sammy and Maddy, attending Atonement Christian Preschool, the Nields joined Atonement for the welcoming community. Jen and her husband Jon have both helped with the Faith Formation program for children. The girls have enjoyed singing with Deacon Tom in the choir. Jen and her family are grateful for the relationships they've started since joining the church and look forward to welcoming others into the Atonement family.

Jen is an HR Systems Manager at AHF Products in Lancaster with many working in HRIS.

from the Deacon

Our Adult Faith Formation class is studying the Book of Galatians on March 8, 15, and 22, 8:45-9:45am in Room F.122. Galatians is a letter Paul wrote to the newly formed Christian churches in the region of Galatia (north-central Turkey in present day). This book is all about Christian freedom: come and join us to learn about what God through Jesus Christ has freed us FROM and what we are freed FOR. The book is not very long – only six short chapters – but it is packed full of teaching that is still of vital importance for all Christians today.

I hope that many of you will join us on Wednesday evenings throughout the season of Lent for a simple dinner at 6:00pm in Lundin Hall, followed by Lenten worship with Common Ground at 7:00pm. Come and experience the amazing grace of God through music, readings, sharing, preaching, and communion in a caring, supportive community!

I also invite you to journey through Holy Week with us. In addition to our usual worship opportunities on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday at 7:00pm in the nave and on Easter Vigil at 7:30pm in Lundin Hall, we are adding a new worship experience on Good Friday, April 3, at 12 noon in the nave: Stations of the Cross is a contemplative service with visual images, readings, prayers, and song that lead us with Jesus from Pontius Pilate's judgement seat along the Via Dolorosa (the Way of Sorrow) to the cross. The service will last approximately 30 minutes and is well worth your time. See the complete Holy Week schedule on the front page.

Lent, if we let it, can be a time to feed our souls and deepen our faith. Thanks for prayerfully considering how you will let Lent make a difference in your life this year.

Peace,
Deacon Tom

Feeding Body and Soul at Hope's Table

Written by: April Mulvey, Synod Authorized Outreach Ministry (SAOM) leader at Hope's Table

Hope's Table: 601 N Front St Reading, PA 19601

Every Tuesday the doors open around 4:30 in the afternoon. During those chilly winter months, our guests are greeted by Sara, who pours each a cup of hot chocolate. Anita is back in the kitchen, where the aromas of the night's dinner are wafting through the hallway. Scott is preparing his music and Judy is either mingling with our guests or helping Anita. As I am preparing the table for worship, I am talking with everyone and listening to the chatter in the room. Before dinner is served, I go around the room asking everyone for prayer requests and the guests fill me in on the happenings of the week. Welcome to Hope's Table.

My journey to serving at Hope's Table is slightly unconventional. I did not grow up in the church. In fact, the first time I attended a church service (outside weddings and funerals) I was sixteen years old because I grew up in a dysfunctional family system. My first exposure was when my grandmother took me to her church. I grew up in a home that did not show the love and compassion of the Gospel of Christ, and I carried that into my adult years. I ended up in a 12-Step recovery program, but I was still missing "something."

That "something" was the God piece in my life and it was not until I got involved in a church and with people who loved me unconditionally, and told me God loved me even more unconditionally, did my life drastically change to the path that put me where I am today being the SAOM leader at Hope's Table. My background in life allows me to relate to the guests that walk into the doors of Hope's Table in ways that are truly personal and empathetic, and I can connect with them and their needs in times of pastoral care because I know some of the struggles they endure. I relate to the brokenness, the loneliness, the desperation, because I was once there too, but the power and love of God have done miraculous things! It put me back together.

That is part of my hope for Hope's Table. We are not just a food ministry. We not only feed the body, we nourish the soul as well. We come together, even if it for only one hour a week, and break bread together, and although we are not defined as a "congregation" by the ELCA, we are a community of the ekklesia. Church, since the pandemic, may need to be redefined and ministries like Hope's Table help pave the way for that re-definement.

If someone is curious about how to get involved with Hope's Table, my best advice would be to come and check us out! Show up! Come and see us in action on Tuesday. Come and sit with our guests and get to know them. Come and volunteer to serve dinner and then we can get you scheduled for service work. Come and see just how blessed we are to be in their presence.

Hope's Table has taught me so many lessons about myself and about the world over this past year. I have learned more about the structure of the synod and church this year and how all those smaller cogs in the wheel have to be put into position and work in unison, or the grander machine does not work. It is not just about one single church or ministry; there is a grander picture at play—like a drop in a bucket of water that sends ripples over the surface. There is much, much more to leadership than the worship at Hope's Table. The decisions we make do not just affect us. They affect the synod, and the ELCA, as a whole.

Having support from the synod has left an immense positive effect on me throughout this whole journey. In those moments when I may doubt myself, or not believe in myself, the synod staff have all uplifted me and given me support. The synod has also supported the mission of Hope's Table as vital to the community, proving once again, that God's people are seen and their needs are heard; that they are not ignored except on a Sunday morning. This continues to demonstrate that my service is properly placed.

I am excited to serve as Hope's Table's SAOM leader and the possibilities and doors that will open for us. I am also excited to be attending the Fresh Expressions National Gathering 2026 at the end of February with other colleagues from NEPA Synod in Ocala, Florida. It is proving to be an inspiring year. I have big dreams for Hope's Table! And why should I? I serve an even bigger God who has done amazing things.
