PASTOR AMANDA APPLEHANS

Fall is my favorite season of the year. As I write this to you in late October, the trees are awash in gorgeous color – reds, yellows, oranges, purples all surround us. But, every morning there are more leaves on the ground than there were the day before, and we are beginning to see the bare branches of certain trees as they prepare for the winter months that will soon be upon us.

But, as the boisterous life of summer gives way to the barren branches of winter, we get to witness the joy of letting go. Trees that have received life all summer long from the hard-working chlorophyll in their leaves are beginning the process of letting those leaves go. The chlorophyll is dying, leaving the beautifully discolored leaves to wither, to disconnect from the branches, and to fall to the ground.

As we watch the trees let go of their leaves, there is a sadness. The lush green canopy of summer has given way to a glorious palette of fall, but almost before we can truly enjoy this beauty the leaves fall to the ground. All the promise of the summer just experienced falls away, and all that's left is a wet pile of mush under our feet.

But, I think the true beauty of fall is the courage shown in a tree that lets go of its leaves. A tree that can take the risk of letting go of the leaves it had made for this season, and trust that after the difficult winter ahead it will be able to grow a new canopy. A boldness that trusts that when one season of beauty is over another will follow. A creativity that is willing to take the risk of letting go of something known and well-loved for the possibility that new beauty and joy can be found in whatever comes next.

May we all, like the trees, trust enough in the God who made us that we can not just endure, but truly embrace a season of letting go. May we trust that the God who has given us all the beauty that was has even more beauty in store. And may we rest always in the knowledge that the God who walked with us this far will continue to walk with us through all life has in store, and even into eternity.

Yours in Christ ~ Pastor Amanda

thank you

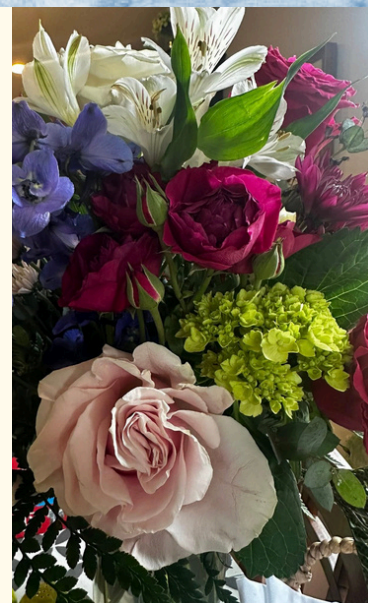

Our heartfelt thanks to you for being part of Galilee Lutheran's second season as host of the Pewaukee Farmers Market. Your involvement is truly appreciated and played a vital role in making our market a vibrant and welcoming place for the community.

Whether you contributed as a vendor, shopper, volunteer, or supporter, your enthusiasm and commitment helped foster local agriculture and support small businesses.

The 2025 Pewaukee Farmers Market team

Thank you for the contributions for backpacks and school supplies for our Salvadoran young people. They are so appreciated by the kids and families in El Salvador. Though additional contributions we were able to provide funds for the Los Martires Congregation Anniversary Celebration in November, A Christmas Party for the children, the Mons Romero Community Anniversary Celebration in March, and a Mother's Day party in May. These special events have always been an important part in the lives of our friends in our Sister Parish, and they are so thankful to you for your support in making them happen.

Greetings to our ministry partners at Galilee Lutheran Church,

We are deeply grateful for your generous monthly gifts in support of Lutherdale's ministry. Your contribution reflects your heart for nurturing the faith journeys of children, youth, and families. Thank you for joining us in this mission with such grace and purpose.

Because of you, Lutherdale remains a sanctuary of radical welcome, where all are embraced regardless of financial means. Your support ensures that camp is a place where lifelong memories are made, friendships are forged, and connections to God are deepened. This past summer, we welcomed a record number of campers—surpassing last year's attendance by 10%—and your contributions made every moment of joy and transformation possible.

As we transition into the vibrant colors of fall, we're preparing for an inspiring retreat season. Our team is hard at work creating new programs, including reflective autumn workshops and community-building activities, to welcome retreat guests of all ages. These retreats will offer sacred spaces for renewal, reflection, and connection under the crisp fall skies.

Our theme from summer camp, God's Word, Our Guide, reminds us that God's presence is ever near—in the beauty of changing leaves, in the warmth of shared stories, and in moments of quiet contemplation. Lutherdale provides the space for these experiences to flourish, and your generosity makes it all possible.

Thank you for being an essential part of this ministry. Your support builds more than programs and facilities—it builds lives rooted in Christ, now and for generations to come. We invite you to stay connected with us see the impact of your gifts in action.

Grace and Peace,

Dear Friends at Galilee Lutheran Church:

Share Our Best Furniture Ministry launched four years ago as a partnership between Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Menomonee Falls and Hephatha Lutheran Church in Milwaukee. The ministry slowly began to grow, with enough furniture donations coming in to necessitate storage space and delivery vehicles. For these, Share Our Best's Andy Dederich approached Outreach for Hope, an initiative of the Greater Milwaukee Synod that raises and distributes funds to ministries helping those in need.

"We came up with support funds that could help them rent a storage facility," said Chris Manke, executive director of Outreach for Hope. "The Greater Milwaukee Synod also did a campaign called Equipping the Saints, which raised funds for various ministries, and we knew supporting this collaboration between Hephatha and Holy Cross would be a perfect fit."

Dederich said that as the need for furnishings grows, Share Our Best is looking at ways to scale its operation. That means not only more furnishings but also space to store the pieces until they can be delivered, and vehicles and manpower to make those deliveries. Until then, Dederich said, he and his team will continue working with their partners, including Outreach for Hope, to furnish as many homes as possible and demonstrate the power of God's love to change lives in ways great and small.

"It has really been about creating the connections between churches and people," he said. "And it's amazing what good things can be done when those connections are made." (Excerpted from The Living Lutheran, Fall 2025)

Thank you for your donation of $600.00 in support of Outreach for Hope and assisting us in funding our Ministry Partners' vital work right here in Southeastern Wisconsin. This year, we celebrate 23 years of your support for these life-giving ministries serving low-income communities within the Greater Milwaukee Synod!

We encourage you to learn more about our Ministry Partners—the 21 congregations and organizations in Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Waukesha and Sheboygan who directly benefit from your support. Their work helps thousands of folks in these communities with food and clothing, employment and legal assistance, children's and adult programming, and so much more! Visit outreachforhope.org or feel free to email us at info@outreachforhope.org or call us at 414-671-1212.

Thank you for your support!

Psalm 23:5b

NAMING OUR BLESSINGS ONE BY ONE

Help fill the water droplets in the fountain
by naming your blessings.

- Think of small and specific blessings each day, rather than general blessings like good health and family.

Suggestions: seeing a beautiful sunset, an unexpected call from a friend, a day without knee pain, etc.

- Write the blessing on a paper drop of water from the basket and attach it to a strand of water. You can write on multiple drops over the next few weeks.

- Why? To cultivate greater awareness of God's daily blessings, especially the small ones we might not typically notice. Greater awareness and naming our blessings leads to increased gratitude and joy.

- The goal is to have a fountain filled and overflowing with everyday blessings.

Morgan Barker Confirmation Day

"I believe that my faith in God is strong. The verse that best describes His presence in my life is from Hebrews 13:8 - 'I know that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.' This verse shows that Jesus never changes and will never leave me. I have changed, though, from when I first went to Sunday School as a young child to now, getting confirmed. At first, I thought that faith was just about loving God and that's it. But I've learned over time that faith is much more. I believe now that faith is not just loving God, but trusting Him to guide me, praying to Him, and following his Word. It is comforting to me knowing that God will always be there for me and will never change.

A time when I felt very close to God was when I was studying the Bible for Confirmation. My favorite Bible story was Moses and the 10 plagues. God guided Moses and his people out of slavery in Egypt. In the same way, God guides me away from bad choices and toward good ones. Another time I feel God's support and love is when I excel in sports and school. I like playing hockey and have been successful in past years. I know I can go to God with a problem and He will listen. Sometimes, though, God can feel far away. An example is when I hear about all the wars going on in the world. When I first heard about the war in Israel, I was sad because I don't like seeing people fight and die. It is hard to see God's light because lots of innocent people, including children, were dying. But I know that even when things are bad, my faith lets me know that God will always be there for me.

My faith has changed over the years and has just gotten stronger. Now, I perceive God as a kind and caring Father. I will take His lessons that I've learned and strive to be a kind, caring, and giving person. I strongly believe that Jesus never changes and will be with me forever. I AM a child of God."

November Services

November 1-2nd – Community (All Saints’ Sunday)

As we celebrate All Saints’ we remember the whole cloud of witnesses that surrounds us. At the table of Holy Communion we feast with all those who have gone before us, all those who have contributed to our faith and are still with us in this world, and truly with all the saints in every time and every place who receive the body and blood of Christ. Today we will immerse ourselves in the unity that comes from being a part of this Body.

November 8-9th - We worship on the first day of the week because Jesus was raised on that day. Every Sunday is a little Easter. This Sunday feels more like Easter than many as the appointed texts celebrate the reality of the resurrection. Live it up this Lord’s day. Our God is the God of the living.

November 15-16th - Jeremiah’s promise of the execution of “justice and righteousness in the land” finds ironic fulfillment in the execution of Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews. It appears utterly contradictory that a king should be crucified with a criminal. This victory appears for all the world as humiliating defeat. Yet through the gate of death Jesus opens the door to paradise.

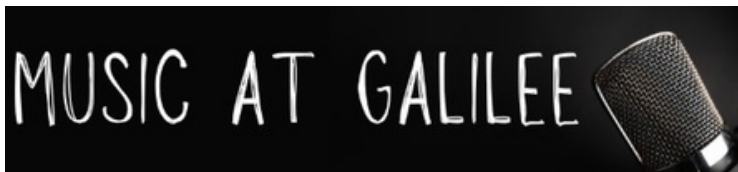

November 22-23rd - Every gathering for worship has elements of thanksgiving. When we are nourished with God’s bounty in holy communion, when we partake of Jesus’ word that gives life to the world, and even when two or three of us simply join our hearts in prayer to make our requests known to God, we do so “with thanksgiving.” Let us give thanks to God, who is good and whose mercy endures forever. This year at Galilee our Thanksgiving Worship Service will be on Sunday, November 23rd. Following worship will be our traditional pie social. We invite everyone to join in, and bring a pie or treat to share, if you wish. There will be no Sunday School on this date.

November 27th: Office closed - Happy Thanksgiving!

November 29th-30th - The start of Advent Season. Please join us as we look into the things we fear. The Angels reassured Mary, “Do not be afraid...” as well as the Magi when they saw the Star. We welcome the artwork and words from “A Sanctified Art” for the entirety of Advent.

Please find it in your hearts to add a gift for one of these children to your shopping list.

I will have the tree up the Wednesday before November 26th by 5pm. You have been so generous in years past!

Thank you in advance for your caring donations.

God's Blessings!
