

Dear Mrs. Ramirez,

I want to thank you for everything you do. Thank you for being funny, kind, and collected. Thank you for being there, but most importantly, thank you for understanding me. You have been such an inspiration in my life. You keep me grounded. I know that if I ever need anyone, you'll always be there.

I remember how difficult freshman year was, but you were by my side the whole time. You talked me through things so I wouldn't freak out. That hit me really hard. I never really thought you would be the one to help me the most. These first two years with you have flown by, and I'm not ready for the next two years coming up. The thought of leaving and not taking you with me scares me.

You've taught me to just go with the flow. To stay calm and deal with what's in front of me. You light up my world and give me hope for my future. You've also taught me how to trust. There aren't always good people out there, but you've shown me that when I find a good person that I shouldn't take advantage of them. Thank you!

Much Love,
