

Lennox Jackson

Lennox has more than 30 years of experience in real estate development, finance, program & project management, and commercial construction. His accomplishments include planning and executing end-to-end project management for Walgreens' real estate assets comprised of retail store remodel rollouts, remote on-site pharmacies, and new store ground-ups within the southeastern U.S., Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. He has planned and executed real estate developments, including residential, retail, and commercial projects resulting in over $100 million in new investment. He has arranged and participated in various partnerships and acted as managing general partner of several ventures; all of which demonstrate his ability to assemble experienced teams and deliver expected results. Other experience includes Urban Equities, Inc. as a member of the Chicago Builders team led by W.E. O'Neil Construction in pursuit of the over $400 million construction management contract for the Obama Presidential Center in Chicago.

Prior to founding Urban Equities, Inc. and Urban Equities Construction LLC, respectively, Lennox was a Development Officer for City Lands Corporation, responsible for structuring and executing LIHTC real estate transactions in the housing sector. While in the aviation sector with the Port Authority of NY & NJ, Lennox negotiated cargo building leases for international airlines at both Newark International and JFK International Airports, respectively.

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science - Cum Laude, Morris Brown College, Atlanta, GA

Master of Public Administration, Pennsylvania State University, State College, PA

Diploma in Real Estate Investment & Analysis, New York University, New York City, NY

Executive Management Certificate, Dartmouth College, Tuck School of Business, Hanover, NH