In Loving Memory... please join in sharing your memories and photos at our Exhibitor Tea following the Thursday matinee session.

BJ Schafer

BJ trained many world, national and regional champions. She was named AMHA Trainer of the Year in the West (2005, 2016) and winner of the 2012 AMHA Golden Reins Award. BJ was also inspired to train service dogs for herself and others, placing over forty dogs with people in need. She has left a lasting legacy in the equine community, and beyond.

Gary Holt

Gary was a prominent horse trainer on the west coast for almost 50 years. He had a wonderful vision, becoming the founder, and long-time manager of the popular Seaside Horse Show. He will be remembered for the many great champions he brought to the show ring.

Bil Hartman

The horse show industry was Bil's passion, whether officiating as a USEF Steward or driving a beautiful horse, or a fancy pony, into the show ring. He could always be found visiting and sharing stories about the horse industry, making every person he met feel included. His knowledge, friendship and laughter will be greatly missed.
