$150

Lunging/day

$15

Schooling fees/day

$25

Schooling fee covers trainer riding horse for warm-ups and/or classes

Added Care/day

$15-$50

Fee charged when HVRA trainer/representative provides services that the rider is typically responsible for, such as feeding and watering, cleaning stall, bathing horse, wrapping legs, loading or unloading riders tack or tack trunk, or cleaning up a mess left behind at riders stall during the day

Show Supplies/show

$50

This fee is charged only at Multi day shows. It helps recoup the cost for the original purchase, and the continued maintenance of the multi day show supplies (canopy and frame, drapes, couches, cargo trailer, fridge, freezer and numerous other items, which tallied up to over $10,000) as well as incidental new supplies purchased during the show season for common use.

Other fees that may apply

PEMF fee/show

$40

Use of PEMF machine during the show

Set up/tear down

$40

Covers packing and unpacking of supplies, set up and tear down of stalls, tack rooms, grooming and seating area. Clients that assist with set up and tear down will have this fee waived/reduced.

Per Diem/day

$65

Split between the number of riders at the show. This per diem helps cover the cost of meals while at a multiday show. Waived if clients provide meals for trainer.

Hotel/Rooming

$ TBD

Covers the cost of lodging should the multi-day show be outside of San Diego. Split between the number of riders at the show.
