CALL for ARTICLES for the Global Healing Alliance Publication for Revolutionizing Health Care

East West Academy of Healing Arts proudly partners with Energy Medicine Partnerships, Institute of CAM Studies at Akamai University and Global Dragon TV an international media company to support revolutionizing health care to:

1. Publish a series of peer reviewed educational books.
2. Create educational opportunities with this material.
3. Produce television programs focusing on natural healing to revolutionize health care.

Our first Complementary and Alternative Medicine book will focus on Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM), Medical Qigong – Tai Chi, and Energy Therapies. We invite master practitioners, teachers and researchers in natural healing and energy practice, to submit articles regarding revolutionizing health care. The publications focus is the power of Eastern Medicine and Energy Medicine to complement Western Medicine.

The revolution includes empowering clients regarding health choices, equal partnership between Eastern and Western practitioners and reframing insurance from a disease – illness – symptom model to an integrative model that includes natural health and wellness.

Synopsis This book mobilizes top practitioners around the world to introduce how TCM, medical qigong, tai chi, acupuncture, herbal medicine, medical massage, and energy therapies can improve people's health and wellness.
