

“I will not be another flower
picked for my beauty and left to die.
I will be wild, difficult to find,
and impossible to forget.”

Daegan William-Tyeler Page

was born February 6, 1998, in Omaha, Nebraska. He lived the first five years of his life in Red Oak, Iowa where he enjoyed many outdoor activities with his friends and family. At age five, Daegan's family moved to Omaha and he attended Millard Schools from kindergarten all the way to his graduation from Millard South

High School in 2016. In September 2017, Daegan signed a delayed entry program contract with the Marine Corps. In January 2018, he left Omaha for Boot Camp at Marine Corps Recruit Depot San Diego.

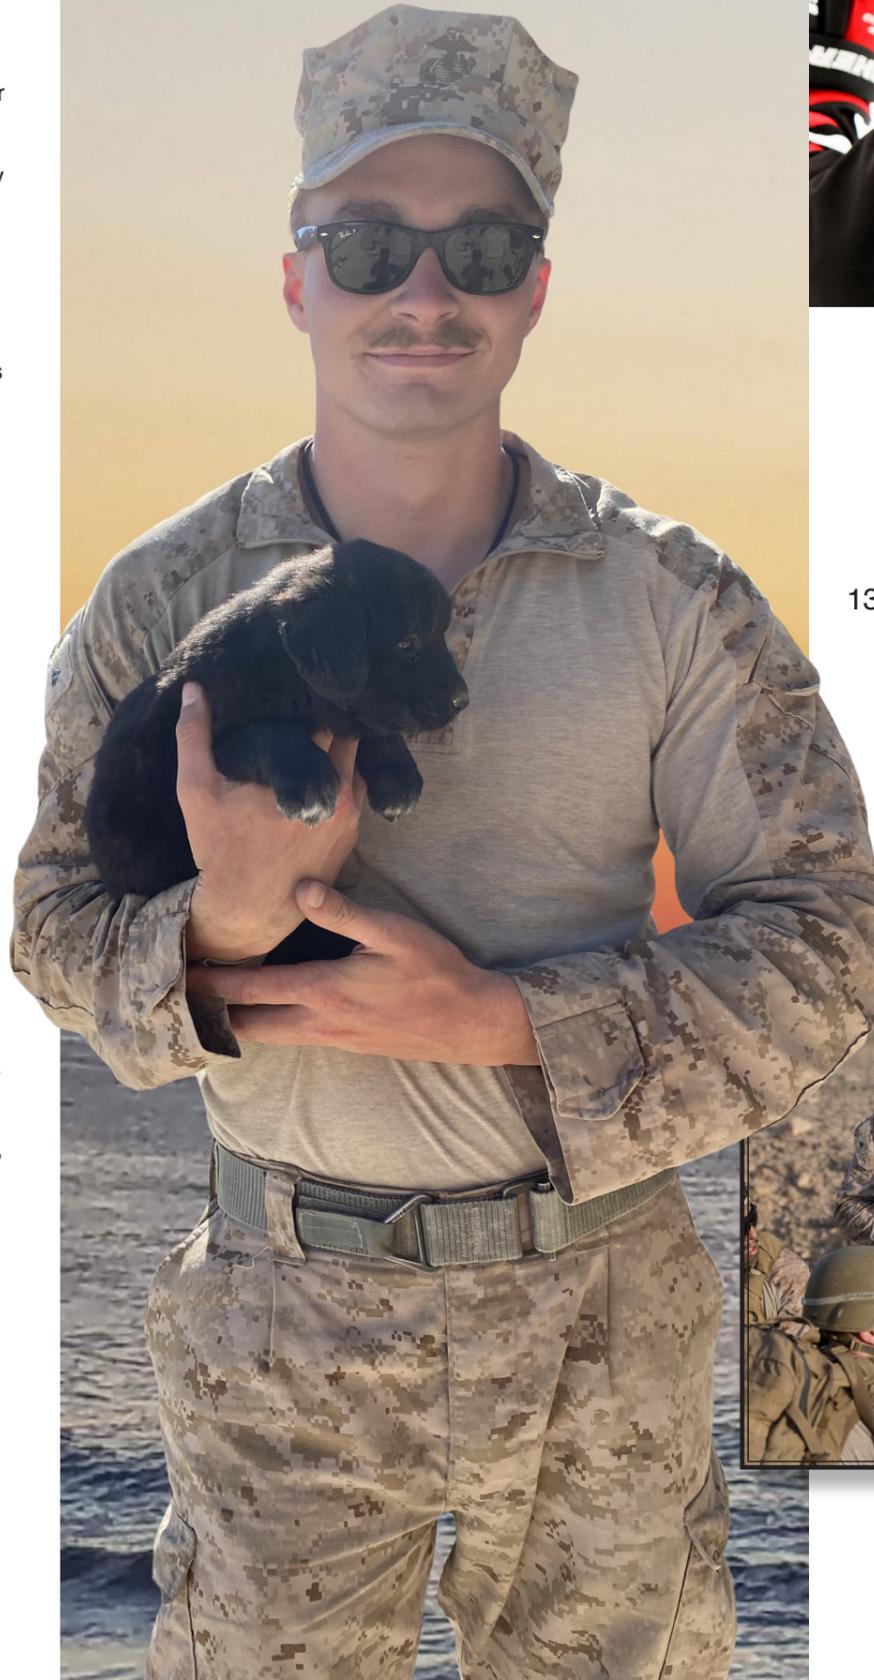

Throughout his 23 years Daegan lived life to the fullest. He had a passion for hockey and started playing at a very young age. He went on to be a member of the State Champion Westside Warrior hockey team and was a lifelong Chicago Blackhawks fan. He was also a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Millard and Boy Scout Troop 331. Daegan loved to spend time outdoors, especially out on the water. He also was an avid skateboarder. Other hobbies included photography, music, art (especially sketching), playing video games, and joking around with friends and family.

Daegan will always be remembered for his fun-loving spirit, tough outer shell, and giant heart. He had a soft spot for animals of all kinds, but most specifically dogs and most of all his three dogs Shyia, Gracie, and Finn.

Daegan loved the brotherhood of the Marines and was proud to serve as a member of the 2nd Battalion, 1st Marine Regiment at Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, California. He deployed multiple times during his service and spent time in Japan, South Korea, Australia, Jordan, and Afghanistan. To Daegan's younger siblings he was not only a Marine, but their real-life hero.

Daegan was preceded in death by grandfather Rodger Page, cousin Nathan Page, grandparents Gary and Alice Adelson, and Uncle Kurt Adelson.

He is survived by his parents, Wendy and Craig Adelson, Greg and Jenni Page; siblings, Corey (Kiley) Adelson, Garrett Ross, Mason Page, and Emerson Page; girlfriend Jessica Ellison; grandparents, Joyce Page, Keith and Peggy Tye, and Don and Kristine Thompson; nephew Wes Adelson; aunts, Becky Tye and Chrissy (Owen) Emanuel; uncles, Ryan (Jessica) Tye, Eric (Christina) Page, and Toby (Mary) Thompson; cousins, Angel McCall, Maribel Macall, Aydan Tye, Catalina Tye, Addison Tye, Nick Page, Nash Page, Wyatt Thompson, Matilda Emanuel, and Leo Emanuel; and many other relatives and friends.

We'll never be apart.
I'll be with you forever,
for you know me by heart.

At times, you'll swear you've heard me or you'll sense that I am near.
Now and then, you'll get a message
Soul-to-soul and crystal clear.

I'm with you in so many ways,
So trust the signs I send.
For nothing is impossible
And real

LOVE NEVER ENDS
