

Rubric for Evaluation of Effort in the Band Program

Name: _____

Criteria	1	2	3	4
Effort	Student applies very little effort in Band class. Projects and assignments are poorly done or incomplete and are usually late.	Student applies inconsistent effort in Band class. Projects and assignments are barely acceptable and are sometimes late.	Student makes a good, concerted effort in Band class. Projects and assignments fulfill requirements and are frequently completed on time.	Student consistently applies excellent effort in Band and works to produce quality, finished products. Assignments and projects are always completed on time
Contribution	Student rarely contributes positively to Band class; questions and comments often distract from learning; behavior impedes the learning of others; has difficulty working within the group.	Student offers ideas and asks questions on occasion which help to clarify discussion for self. Acceptable group work skills are evident.	Student offers ideas and asks questions in class that promote learning. Very good group work skills are demonstrated.	Student offers ideas and asks questions that consistently clarify and extend discussions for all; possess superior leadership qualities and excellent group work skills.
Attentiveness	Student is usually off task and does not focus on the Band lesson. Positive listening skills are rarely evident. Student's behavior is disruptive and disrespectful to his Band members and/or instructor.	Student is often not on task, with inconsistent focus on the Band lesson. Listening skills need improving. Student rarely adds to the learning by contributing comments or questions.	Student remains on task most of the time and is usually focused on the Band lesson. Listens when class members talk and will offer additional input to enhance learning; listens for understanding.	Student is consistently on task and very focused on the Band lesson. Excellent listening skills are demonstrated when others talk. Student listens for understanding and relevance, often incorporating or extending the ideas of others.
Attitude	Student rarely shows respect for the Band members and instructor. Often inappropriate comments are made to others.	Student inconsistently shows respect for the Band members and instructor. On occasion the student makes inappropriate comments to others.	Student usually is respectful of the Band members and instructor. Comments and questions are appropriate and respectful of others.	Student consistently shows respect for the Band members and instructor. Questions and comments challenge ideas and promote learning in a respectful way.

Rubric for Evaluation in the Band Program

Name: _____

Grade Criteria	D	C	B	A
Listening Skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pitch (note accuracy) • Duration (rhythm/ tempo production) • Balance and blend (nuance or refinement with other parts) • Intonation (tuning) 	Student seldom performs pitch or durations accurately or with a steady tempo; has difficulty responding to other instrument parts and seldom performs in tune.	Student occasionally performs with accurate pitches but makes frequent or repeated errors. Sometimes durations are performed accurately, but with erratic pulse or with durational errors. Student generally responds to the needs of other parts and sometimes performs in tune.	Pitch is mostly accurate and secure with few isolated errors. Rhythm is mostly accurate and pulse is steady. Student specifically responds to the harmonic and texture needs of other parts. Tuning is often accurate with few isolated errors.	Student performs virtually error free, with very secure pitches. Pulses are secure and rhythmically accurate. Student is very sensitive to the nuance required and demonstrates very secure tuning.
Sound Production <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sound and tone quality • Embouchure (The manner in which the lips and tongue are applied to the mouthpiece.) 	Student seldom is able to maintain appropriate tone quality and project tone consistently.	Student sometimes uses a appropriate tone quality, and occasionally projects and controls tone.	Student usually performs with appropriate tone quality, and usually projects and controls tone.	Student produces an open and resonant sound with clear, focused tone throughout the full range of the instrument. Tone quality is consistently achieved through controlled projection.
Expression/Style <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Phrasing/Breathing • Dynamics/Contrasts • Nuance (expressive refinement in performance) 	There is little evidence of musical nuance in phrases. Student rarely indicates phrasing structure through refinement. Student is seldom able to control dynamics, with no evidence of contrasts.	Student sometimes responds to musical nuance indicated in the score. Dynamic levels are generally performed with some response to dynamic effects (crescendo, decrescendo)	Student usually performs with nuance or style indicated in the score, or suggestions by the instructor. Musical nuance usually is used to indicate phrase structure.	Student consistently performs with nuance and style in response to the score and coaching. Phrase structure is consistently and sensitively applied.
Musical Literacy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Signs • Symbols • Terms 	Student rarely identifies signs, symbols and terms in written music.	Student usually identifies and understands the signs, symbols and terms in written music.	Student recognizes and understands signs, symbols and terms in written music.	Student identifies and understands signs, symbols and terms, and applies them to written music.
Instrumental Technique <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Posture • Hand Position • Articulation (attacks) • Fingering/Breathing 	Student rarely sits/stands correctly; inappropriately positions hands; experiences difficulty using tongue and cannot deliver indicated articulation; fingering is inaccurate; seldom has sufficient air support to produce tone quality.	Student occasionally sits/stands correctly and sometimes applies correct hand positions. Attacks are generally consistent with some response to staccato, legato, and slur markings.	Student usually demonstrates mostly accurate attacks and often responds to articulation; usually sits/stands correctly; and often applies correct hand positions. Fingering is accurate and usually proper air support is applied to achieve desired tone quality.	Student consistently sits/stands with correct posture; is conscious of and demonstrates correct hand positions; accurately uses tongue to deliver indicated articulation; attacks are secure; uses correct fingering with ease; displays proper air support in order to produce excellent tone quality.

Students may receive an I, indicating work is incomplete

Students may receive an N/A, indicating criteria are not applicable at this time
