HEALTH DISPARITIES: How People of Color May Advocate for Excellent Care

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27 | 7 TO 8 P.M. | Free Zoom Webinar

Sponsored by the New Morning Star Baptist Church and Sibley Senior Association

Join us to celebrate National Minority Health Month!

Did you know that health disparities can contribute to decreased quality of care? Explore factors that contribute to disparities in health, and health care use and outcomes. Learn how you can best advocate to receive high-quality care for yourself and your family. We seek to identify practices that promote health equity and reduce disparities. There will be time for questions and answers.

Welcome and program introduction: Reverend Dr. Donald K. Sadler, pastor of New Morning Star Baptist Church

Speaker introduction: Marti Brown Bailey, B.S., C.S.A., C.D.P., C.A.D.D.C.T., director of the Sibley Senior Association and Community Health, Sibley Memorial Hospital

Guest Speaker: Sharon Sellers, senior community dementia program manager, Sibley Senior Association (SSA), will discuss the impact of health disparities and ways we can advocate for quality care.

Sharon has spent over 25 years serving seniors and their families in assisted living communities and nursing homes. At SSA, Sharon brings her passion of supporting and developing programming for seniors with memory concerns and dementia. She facilitates support groups for family caregivers who seek guidance in navigating the dementia journey with a loved one.
