

Discussing the Facts:

Protecting Yourself from Scams, Identity Theft and Elder Abuse

Presented by New Morning Star Baptist Church and Sibley Memorial Hospital

Wednesday, Oct. 25

7 to 8 p.m. | via Zoom

Join us for an important discussion about protecting yourself from Scams, Identity Theft and Elder Abuse. Learn about identity theft, what it is, how it happens, prevention, and actions to take if your identity is ever stolen. Learn about scams, types of scams, situations to avoid, at-risk activities, targets, and perpetrator's intentions. Learn about elder abuse and avoiding family perpetrators as well as signs to watch for.

Welcome and Program Introduction: Reverend Dr. Donald K. Sadler, pastor of New Morning Star Baptist Church.

Reverend Donald Kerwin Sadler is a native of the District of Columbia where he attended public schools. Pastor Sadler has matriculated at Montgomery College, majoring in Business Administration. He is a graduate of the Washington Baptist Seminary as well as the Howard University's School of Divinity and is a graduate of the Baptist Theological Seminary of Zimbabwe. He received his Doctor of Ministry Degree from the Morehouse School of Religion at The Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia and is certified by the Center for Congregational Health as a level one and two Interim Minister.

Moderator and Guest Speaker: Marti Brown Bailey, B.S., C.S.A., C.A.D.D.C.T., C.D.P.

Marti Brown Bailey is the interim director of Community Affairs and the director of the Sibley Senior Association (SSA) and Community Health at Sibley Memorial Hospital in Northwest D.C. She is responsible for managing staff, programming and overall direction of the SSA, with constituency of around 6,000 older adults. Marti collaborates with internal staff and members of the community to identify, develop, and implement appropriate new services and programming. She also supports community health improvement initiatives through Sibley's alignment with the D.C. Health Matters Collaborative.

Marti is founder and program developer of the Club Memory® Program. Working with the Sibley Hospital Foundation and the DC Department on Aging and Community Living, she spearheaded the expansion to serve every ward in the district. Marti has a B.S. in Business Administration and has pursued graduate work in aging services. Marti is a Certified Senior Advisor, a Certified Alzheimer's disease and Dementia Care Trainer, a Certified Dementia Practitioner, and an expert trainer/speaker in Alzheimer's disease and Related Dementia as well as aging issues.

Register at <https://smh.memberclicks.net/oct2023discussingfacts> or email pnunez3@jhmi.edu or call 202-364-7602 before October 24.

SIBLEY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

JOHNS HOPKINS MEDICINE