Discussing the Facts:

TOPIC 1: Men's Health - Everything You Need to Know About Your Prostate

TOPIC 2: Depression and Health Equity

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 28 | 6:30 TO 8:30 P.M. | Free Zoom Webinars

Sponsored by New Morning Star Baptist Church and Sibley Senior Association

Welcome and program introduction: Reverend Dr. Donald K. Sadler, pastor of New Morning Star Baptist Church

Speaker introduction: Marti Brown Bailey, B.S., C.S.A., C.D.P., C.A.D.D.C.T., director of the Sibley Senior Association and Community Health, Sibley Memorial Hospital

6:30 p.m.: Men's Health – Everything You Need to Know About Your Prostate

Guest speaker: Curtiland Deville, M.D., will discuss how the prostate functions and how to keep it healthy. This webinar is for anyone with a prostate and anyone who knows someone with a prostate.

Dr. Deville is the medical director of the Johns Hopkins Proton Therapy Center, clinical director of radiation oncology at Sibley Memorial Hospital, co-director of the Johns Hopkins Kimmel Cancer Center Prostate Cancer Multidisciplinary Clinic at Sibley Memorial Hospital, and an associate professor of Radiation Oncology and Molecular Radiation Sciences at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. He is an expert in prostate cancer management and a leader in several institutional and national clinical trials. He treats genitourinary malignancies, including prostate cancer and is dedicated to creating individualized treatment plans for each patient through a shared decision-making approach.

7:30 p.m.: Depression and Health Equity

Guest speaker: Naeemah Staggs, MHS, CCTS, will discuss the prevalence, stigma, signs of and support for those experiencing depression, the impact of depression in the Black community as well as health equity. Depression symptoms in the Black community are often viewed as weakness, therefore acceptance of depression can be difficult.

Naeemah is a certified clinical trauma specialist, national trainer and community educator. She is also a certified adult, youth, higher-ed and teen mental health first aid instructor. Naeemah teaches at the University of Maryland School of Social Work and serves as a consultant for several organizations including Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), National Council for Mental Wellbeing, Darkness to Light and the Human Rights Campaign.

There will be time for questions and answers.
