

Summer One-Acts Synopsis/Characters

BLIND DATE - Comedy. Present day in a small bistro. An insecure young man brings his coach along on a blind date. 1M(20s), 1F(20s), 1F(40-60), 1F(40-60)

DEATH BRINGS A CASSEROLE - Comedy. Rudy Fenster, only 43 years old, is about to have a fatal aneurysm. The way he finds out is quite disturbing. Time/Place: Present day in a church pew. 1M(40s), 1M(20-60)

DOG HOUSE- Comedy/Improv. A story about a pedigree girl DOG and a mixed-breed boy DOG who have a loving home but sense that all is not well with their owners. Both DOGS are rescues.
1M(20ish), 1F(20ish) Improv, physical humor.

FLORIDA - Light drama. A homeless couple in their late 60s, sitting on a New York City sidewalk, discuss their future. He casts as positive a light as he can on their prospects, while she fearfully struggles with symptoms of Alzheimer's-like mental decline. 1M(60s), 1F(60s)

HANG-UPS - Comedy. A high-strung, male accountant struggles when his girlfriend confides that she is in the "phone-ex profession. Present day. Living room. 1M(20-30), 1F(20-30)

INTERVIEW- Comedy. A job applicant fibs during his interview which opens up an interesting conversation about the interviewing process, careers, and goals. 1M/F(20s), 1M/F(40-60)

PUMPS - Comedy. Stephiev talks to her high heels pumps while Dave encourages her to "show em who's boss" 1F(20-40), 1M(20-40)

STICKERS - Light drama. A young woman and her aging grandmother decide on the disposition of items in the home. The older woman surprises her with a revelation. A recently acquired African ceremonial mask presents a decision and provides a springboard for the transfer of family wisdom. 1F(30s), 1F (70-80)

WHALE WATCHING - Light drama. A young man takes his grandmother for an outing on the Staten Island Ferry. She hopes to see whales. He could care less. His grandmother's love and a close encounter with whales give him a newfound appreciation for the magnificent creatures. 1M(20s), 1F(70-80)

WHEN KILLER ANIMALS GO NUTS - Comedy. A man who narrates overwrought TV documentaries goes looking for love. But the skills that made him a success on TV sabotage his date. 1M(20-30), 1M(20-50), 1F(20-30), 1F(20-40)