Featured Sponsor: Munday Emporium

Munday Emporium features an eclectic blend of gifts, arts, and business services.

121 East B St. Munday, Texas

Our Featured Sponsor for August is Munday Emporium, located at 121 East B Street in Munday. This is a Gifts and Art Gallery where the gift section features hand-crocheted blankets and prayer shawls, unique sticker sets and photo keychains, hand-crafted jewelry, decorated tee-shirts and hoodies, and fleece hoods by Polar Bear Fleecewear.

The gallery showcases fine art photography available for purchase in various sizes and mediums to suit the customer's preference. Additionally, the gallery offers an array of items for sale, such as photo prints, greeting cards, buttons, and postcards featuring photography.

Munday Emporium, celebrating its first anniversary at this location, is a gift shop and gallery where imagination and inspiration converge. Partners Cindie, Bill, and Jennifer welcome you to explore their one-of-a-kind products, perfect for those seeking unique gifts and fine art photography.

You can reach them in person at 121 East B Street, Munday, TX, by phone at 940-203-0725 or by email at sales@mundayemporium.com. Their website is www.mundayemporium.com. Either way you choose, they hope to inspire you soon!

Notable Resident Corner: Donna Hyatt (Goree)

Donna and her husband, Captain Terry Hyatt (USMM, retired), originally from the coastal area of North Carolina, accidentally transplanted to Justin, TX in 2016 whilst on a journey in their 40-foot motorcoach. In that first year, 3,000 homes were built. Deterred by the influx, they ventured into the Big Empty area, landing in Goree, TX. They have spent 7 years rebuilding an old ranch home and turning the property into their special retirement haven. Work has slowed due to health reasons, but the imagery is still fresh in their minds of how the completed look will be. You may recognize the old tenant house across from Peek's old station.
