Notable Resident Corner

Karen Hayley (Rochester)

I had the most awesome job and experience that anyone could have. I started at NASA as a receptionist for a subcontractor. We had to have a security clearance and I worked my way up in job descriptions. To start my shift at

NASA, I had a top-secret security clearance and had a PCZ badge, a physical control zone badge, meaning I had to push a secure set of numbers and opened the door to a small area where door closed behind me and had to enter another set of numbers before entry to building. I worked with the simulators, space shuttle included, and whenever the astronauts...continue reading at our website
