

Fulfill all 12 hours of your annual continuing legal education requirements in a medieval castle. For the first time in 375 years, Redwood Castle in Co. Tipperary, Ireland returns to its ancient roots as a law school for this special lecture series.

May
12-15
2025

The Redwood Lectures

This organization has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by the Law Society of Ontario.

Introduction to early Irish law featuring examination of Críth Gablach (~700CE), presented by Fangzhe Qiu of University College Dublin

Explorations of the social-political system in early medieval Ireland and the interactions between legal systems in the late 16th century presented by Andrew Ó Donnghaile of University College Dublin

Examination of the status of women in early Irish law and the study of Aídbred and related texts concerning lost and stolen property, presented by Charlene Eska of Virginia Tech

Discussions of the Irish law manuscript tradition and practices of law and learning in late medieval law schools, presented by Chantal Kobel of Maynooth University

3 hours EDI and Professionalism- Inclusive Decision-Making through Critical Thinking

This 3 hour training session is specifically designed for legal professionals committed to advancing these principles within their practice. Through a series of interactive exercises, critical analyses, and applying theoretical frameworks, participants will learn to navigate and lead with inclusivity in their decision-making processes. This session is essential for lawyers looking to meet CPD requirements while significantly improving their professional skills in EDI.

4-star accommodation and transportation to and from the nearby County Arms Hotel is available. Optional outings include a medieval feast, Irish storytelling, music and dancing at Bunratty Castle.

More Information and booking at www.kevinegan.ca/redwood