

UBS Women's Future Fund

For Female Student-Athletes and Future Entrepreneurs

About Us

We aim to empower young female student-athletes into the entrepreneurial space through grassroots initiatives that will contribute to fostering a global community of female business leaders.

Key Details

Who We Serve	Female student-athletes (16-24) in high school or college Future female entrepreneurs and business leaders
Our Values	Empowering female entrepreneurs and athletes Education and awareness to promote investment in women Establishing a dedicated women-focused venture fund
What to Expect	Athlete-to-entrepreneurship pathway Funding and financial support resources Multi-touch engagement Business connections and opportunities
Support Needed	Current female athletes interested in business Former female athletes and entrepreneurs Funding from interested investment companies

Potential Opportunities

Partner Company

UBS works to amplify the voices of women entrepreneurs and investors, aiming to narrow the funding gap and promote equitable economic opportunities for underrepresented founders.

Female-Founded Businesses

We are seeking business opportunities and networking to help UBS spread their investments and education to female-founded companies, such as the following:

Togethxr

Media and commerce company that promotes coverage for women's sports

TOGETHXR

Maven Clinic

First virtual clinic dedicated to women's and family health

Female Founders Fund

Seed stage venture fund that invests exclusively in female-founded companies

Meet the Team

Imani Bogue Bieniemy - Howard University - imanibieniemy@gmail.com

Leah Croom - Howard University - leahcroom@bison.howard.edu

Riley Dumigan- Dartmouth College -riley.m.dumigan.27@dartmouth.edu

Sarah Fox - Johns Hopkins University - sfox32@jh.edu

Ava Hagwell - University of Chicago - ahagwell@uchicago.edu

Noelle Winegar - Georgetown University - nhw14@georgetown.edu