

13th International Conference on Logistics & Transport (ICLT) 2023, Helsinki, Finland

Theme: Circular Supply Chains for Resilience

Hosted by the Supply Chain Management & Social Responsibility subject at Hanken School of Economics

Fall, 2023 [TBD]

Hanken School of Economics

Campuses in Helsinki and Vaasa

Swedish and English languages

Comprehensive business school: BSc, MSc, PhD + EMBA, executive education by Hanken & SSE (Stockholm School of Economics)

2 725 students total, including 118 PhD students

Total personnel of 274

- 156 academic
- 118 professional services

Four departments and a Language Centre

Triple accredited by EQUIS, AMBA, & AACSB

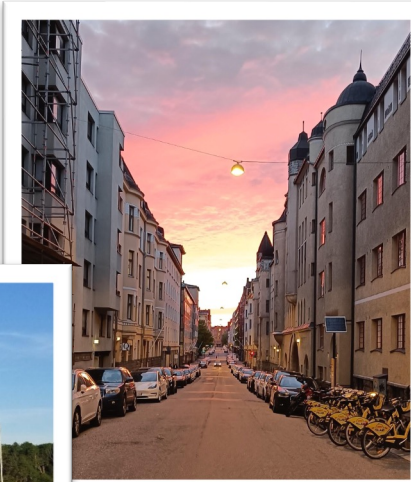

Internationally oriented, research-driven business school with close alumni and corporate contacts

More at <https://www.hanken.fi/en>

Helsinki, Finland's Capital

Land of the Midnight Sun

Home of Santa Claus

Some Practical Details

Direct flights Bangkok-Helsinki with Finnair: <https://www.finnair.com/th-en>

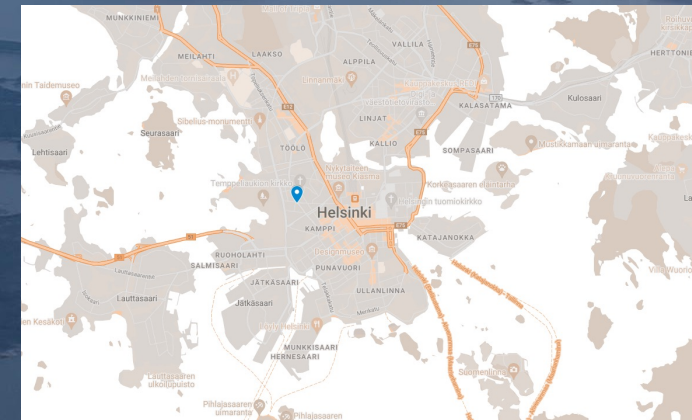

Various types of accommodation, for example: <https://unihome.fi/en/home>

Conference will be held in Hanken's building, Arkadiankatu 22, 00100

Widespread public transportation in the city: <https://www.hsl.fi/en>

Much to see and do in the “happiest country in the world”:
<https://www.myhelsinki.fi/en/your-local-guide-to-Helsinki>

Intermediate dates and schedules TBA, but keep track on ICLT's website:
<https://iclt.info/>

A serene winter landscape featuring a dense forest of tall, slender evergreen trees. The ground is covered in a thick layer of snow, with some small, dark plants visible. The sky is a soft, pale blue, suggesting a clear day. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and quiet.

We look forward to welcoming you in Helsinki...!