

How the Peacock Got Its Feathers

By Clayton Francis & Cherylann Francis

Character Analysis

Attitude:
Way of thinking/feeling that is exhibited through or in behavior.

Quality
Inherent distinctive and distinguishable characteristic.

Trait:
Typical or usual behavioral tendencies.

After reading the story, analyze the attitudes, qualities or traits of each character. Discuss how they affected or impacted the story or other characters in the story. (Make additional sheets as necessary)

Educators Note: This can be used in conjunction with "Character Education" pie chart.

Name of Character

Attitudes/Qualities/Traits

-
-
-
-
-

Examples of how the character displayed the above attitudes, qualities or traits. How were they positive or negative? Do you think they are changeable, if so, how?

-
-
-
-
-