

How the Peacock Got Its Feathers

By Clayton Francis & Cherylann Francis

Council of the Birds

Mission Statement:

To encourage, nurture and support positive interactions, friendships, and relationships.

Vision Statement:

Council of the Birds will serve as a flock dedicated to preserving unity by addressing the needs and concerns of the animals and creatures in our forest community through intervention, mediation, and reconciliation.

Core Values:

Respect for individuals

We view others as having equal value and treat them with dignity.

Compassion and kindness

We demonstrate concern for others by helping when there is a need.

Courage

We equip others to gain the competence to confront situations and to demonstrate bravery when faced with danger or pain.

Integrity

We encourage honesty, truthfulness and reliability in communication (words) and actions (behavior).

Perseverance

We inspire determination in the achievement of goals, endurance through difficulties and patience during adversities.
