APPENDIX A TEAM ASSIGNMENT POLICY

SECTION 1- PURPOSE

- It is the intention of OYFL to make the sport of tackle football available to as many youngsters as possible. The limiting restrictions are based on the financial ability of OYFL to provide adequate equipment and coaches for the protection of the participants. All rules herein shall be in accordance with the CCYFL Playing Rules. If any conflict arises, the CCYFL Playing Rules shall take precedence.

SECTION 2- SIGN UP PROCESS

- All sign-ups will be placed in a division according to CCYFL rules and regulations, on a first come, first served basis. This is determined by registration on sportsengine. A player is not considered registered until the fees are paid.
- No signups will be accepted after the date set forth by CCYFL.
- Teams will be organized per CCYFL Rules.
- All fees not paid from the previous year must be paid and the current year's registration fees must be paid in order for a potential participant to be placed on a team. Entry into the league will be based on availability of positions on existing teams. Financial hardships will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Any potential participant not completing the required paperwork, supplying a birth certificate (or other proof of age), or not obtaining a signed health certificate will not be issued equipment. If these conditions are not met by the first day of conditioning, the potential participant may not enter the practice field. Under no circumstances shall any player participate in any conditioning or practice until a signed health certificate is obtained. Any coach allowing a player to participate without a signed health certificate will be immediately removed from the league. If a potential participant is placed on the waiting list, there is no guarantee that a place will be available for the child even if all required paperwork is completed, regardless of the date and time originally signed up. Entry into the league will be based on availability of positions on existing teams.
- All refunds for players quitting the league and requesting a refund will be processed per Article X, Section 13.

SECTION 3-TEAM FORMATIONS

- Teams shall be formed in accordance with Article II, Section E of the CCYFL Rules and Regulations. All players must meet the eligibility requirements and shall be certified in accordance with Article II of the CCYFL Rules and Regulations.
- The Athletic Director shall preside over the Draft. The draft will be held under the supervision of the OYFL President, Vice President and Player Agent(s). The Draft will be monitored by a CCYFL official or their designee.
- With the approval of the CCYFL waiver committee, The Board of Directors is empowered to deviate from rules governing the CCYFL player assignment policy with respect to age, weight and ability if it would be in the best interest of the concerned player(s) and the league as a whole.
- Whenever siblings are involved, parents may request that they be on the same team. The coach's options and brother options must be identified and be submitted to the Player Agent in writing by the coaches. All such requests must be approved by the Player Agent and the Athletic Director in order to be valid in the following draft. Special requests will not alter Draft procedures or determine team placement.
- The Player Agent will provide a master list of all eligible players to all coaches prior to the draft.
- In order to be eligible for the draft, a player must show up for a minimum of 6 hours of conditioning in order to provide the coaches a chance to evaluate the players prior to the draft. Ineligible players may be assigned to a team by the Player Agent if space is available.
- Whenever sibling options are involved, selecting one means that in the next subsequent round(s), the other(s) must be selected as well.
- Team expansion, if necessary, will be conducted in accordance with the CCYFL Playing Rules, Article II, Section E, Item 4.
- A head coach must include their child as one of their four protected players, unless the child is already a "returner" to that same division. If a sibling is also in the same division, the sibling will be taken in the third round of the draft.

SECTION 4-CHEERLEADERS

● CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Cheerleaders are to obtain physical certification in order for them to perform stunts (pyramids or acrobatics) and maintain academic certification in order to participate in the program. Cheerleaders are also considered athletes and have the same requirements.

- SQUAD PLACEMENT

- Cheerleaders are placed on team squads based on the following priority:
 - A. Placement of the availability of cheerleaders.
 - B. Team placement of siblings.
 - C. Age of cheerleader corresponding with age and skill level of cheerleader.

Subject to discretion of the Cheer Coordinator.

- PROGRESSION SHEETS (STUNTING)

- Progression sheets which are signed off by the CCYCA will need to be maintained in order to be eligible for ANY stunts. Cheer practices are to be held at designated practice sites established by the Board of Directors. Each practice site must be covered by OYFL insurance.

SECTION 5-GAME DAY

- GAME ATTIRE for all divisions will consist of league issued uniforms. Any and all changes must be approved by the Board of Directors. Repercussions will occur, if not given prior approval.

All OYFL Board decisions shall be final and binding.

- A maximum of two (2) water boys/girls will be allowed. Minimum age of FIVE and up at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Adults may not be considered water boys/girls.

Anything not covered or listed above requires prior Board of Directors approval
