

DID YOU KNOW.....

A look back at early area history as found in the archives of the Enderlin Historical Society and Museum by Susan Schlecht

The 1929 issue of THE ENODAK, which gave us some basketball statistics for last week's article, also gives us some insight into other activities at the school to support the athletes.

The Loyal Legion of Leather Lungs

The Loyal Legion of Leather Lungs was formed in the fall of 1924. The purpose of this body is to furnish yells and pep songs for the basket-ball games held here. The membership of the organization has been limited to sixty. The first yell leader was Cora Toring, and the present yell leaders are Lorraine Toring and Robert Sanders. Recently the organization has extended its functions somewhat and has upon several occasions undertaken the sale of tickets for athletic games. It is an organization very much worth while. Membership qualifications are the right attitudes toward school activities and an unselfish desire to serve. The present officers are: Paul Jacobson – President; Johanna Lutness – Vice President; Hazel Svedjan – Treasurer; Esther Loomis – Secretary.

Inter-Class Basketball

Inter-class basket-ball in Enderlin High School is more than a mere device for selecting members of the inter-scholastic teams. We believe in the idea, "athletics for all" and inter-class basket-ball offers a means of providing actual playing to about half of the pupils enrolled. After the foot-ball season, there is a period of a few weeks when practice for inter-class basket-ball is scheduled. The tournament itself lasts thru several days. This year the final game between the girls' teams was between the Sophomores and the Juniors. The Junior team members were Loraine Toring, Gjerdis Svedjan, Mildred Arndt, Helen Doeling, Norma Lambrecht, Evelyn Dehn and Maelon Shelver. The Sophomores were Hazel Svedjan, Marie Roessler, Theone Bell, Florence Kempf, Esther Pett and Beatrice Sunby. The Sophomores won a closely guarded game by the score of 9 to 6. The Junior boys' team, consisting of George Nelson, Paul Jacobson, Milton Bergstrom, Ollie Sunby and Edward Bjornstad, defeated the Senior boys, Roy Marcussen, Lawrence Nelson, Iveson Wold, Alfred Forbord and Herman Oehlke by the score of 6 to 5.

Sue's Comments: Any interest in renaming our Pep Club to the "Loyal Legion of Leather Lungs"? Maybe "yell" leaders would have more appeal than "cheer" leaders!
