Born and raised in Colombia, Iván is a musician, songwriter, producer, catholic speaker and teacher. Iván began his college career at Pontificia Universidad Javeriana in Bogotá, Colombia and completed both a Bachelor of Music and Master of Arts in choral conducting at Florida Atlantic University after moving to the U.S.

Iván has served as the choir director of NCYC, music director of the NCCYM, and as a high school choral director. Songs from his first album, Honor y Gloria a Él, are included in several OCP collections. His most recent collection, Nuestra Alegría/Our Joy, contains Spanish and bilingual versions of English-language favorites, serving as a musical bridge for Hispanic and multicultural communities.

Iván is involved in national and diocesan youth conventions, Hispanic and multicultural conventions, music workshops and other events all across the country. He hopes that his music and testimony become instruments for all to experience the love of God. He currently lives in Miami, Florida, where he attends the Church of the Little Flower in Hollywood, Florida, and is the director of campus ministry at St. Thomas University.
