ImpactCenter

The ImpactCenter exists to provide support for Ministry leaders and their spouses who have been called to constantly pour themselves out in the service of others, but they often lack that same pastoral care and guidance for themselves. Leaders need to be rooted spiritually, integrated interiorly, and prioritizing their personal vocation.

Core Impact Retreats with Jim Beckman and his team provide a broad range of guidance, practical wisdom and trusted support for whatever you may be going through that is leading to diminished capacities for effective ministry and healthy lifestyle. These are personal spirituality retreats for leaders, ministers, missionaries and staff.
