A Grammy nominated songwriter/composer, producer, recording artist, author, speaker, workshop educator and worship leader, Sarah brings the joy of her faith into all of her endeavors.

One of Sarah Hart's greatest joys is found in her travels, on the road helming concerts, keynoting and speaking, leading faith-focused parish missions, retreats and workshops for women and musicians, and performing a variety of events from coast to coast and abroad. In October of 2013, Sarah was invited to sing for Pope Francis and a crowd of 150,000 in St. Peter's Square.

Relatability takes priority for Sarah. "I always hope to simply be a person of faith who is in touch with my humanity; being able to write, speak, sing and give to others from that place of fearless honesty is, for me, the key."

In her travels, the reward is meeting people, sharing her stories, and having them share their own experiences, too. "To be able to do this work and offer a little bit of an oasis to people – a time to sing, listen, delve in, have fun and look deeper into their faith and desire more -- that's really rewarding to me. I'm incredibly grateful to meet such amazing folks, to have them be a part of my journey; and I'm so grateful for them allowing me be a part of theirs."
