Hereby I am sharing my thoughts. There is not my any intention to heart any religion or any person. It is just my thoughts. It may show hard reality. It may help for change.

BREXIT – REFERENDUM – BORIS JOHNSON

Before 3 month of Referendum I was observed all referendum movement in every 4 hour. So my observation presenting below.

1) UK Referendum LEAVE result due to below 4 reasons:-

A) Politically motivated by UK PM :-

UK PM declared to resign if LEAVE win, actually this is nation people personal decision on all parameters whether they want REMAIN or LEAVE. This time PM has to urge population that “Please don’t take politically. This is matter of nation future. Even I request you to all opposite party & their member, don’t take politically & don’t oppose me since I am in your opposite party. But thing about our nation future in all real aspects & vote accordingly.”

Instead of saying this he declare that he will resign if LEAVE win. Means there is opportunity to all opposite party to change political equation & most of opposites campaign for LEAVE politically motivated. There is always advantage & disadvantage for any decision. They show advantage of LEAVE. Also LEAVE side leader Boris Johnson constantly & non-rest did his job.

Below 3 point happen in last 1 week of Bre-exit Referendum & that’s make crucial + 4% victory vote.

B) Remain campaign lady murdered. She was 2 children, all of sudden support turn to REMAIN. Poll shown +2% gap on remain side. But PM team stretch more than 5 days to condolence candle light etc. & then people fill it is too much. They feel REMAIN Team want to take advantage of murder lady & it move vote to LEAVE from REMAIN.

C) EU declare Bre-exit mean’s Bre-exit no return – Actually EU has to say politely instead of warning tone in difficult situation.

Actually they should say “Time is difficult for all of us. We stay together for 43 years in bad & good time. Now refugee issue is challenge for all of us. This problem also we will solved during some time & for that we want unity. So please live together like 43 year & will show strength & unity to the world.” Then might be this historic result different, instead of that.

EU heart common people ego & respect by making statement like boss warning that “Bre-exit is bre-exit no return”.

D) News on internet that UK Queen ask question in private dinner party that tell me 3 reasonable reason why UK should stay with EU. UK is having tremendous respect about Queen. This news spread message that Queen is on LEAVE side. It may motivate crucial 4% vote turn to LEAVE side. And the most important BORIS Johnson is the person who constantly did his Job for the win of leave result.
