MARCH 2022 NEWSLETTER

ORDERS OF BUSINESS

Meeting was called to order at 2:30PM

Prayer- Regi Armstrong-Leading Meeting

Pledge

Reintroduction of newest members

Notes from last meeting-Rebecca Caffrey

OLD BUSINESS

Steve Cox-Chief RSO/-7 members will be rolled off of the list for lack of due payments. 2 members may renew. 1 pending candidate is about to be accepted for new membership. Also, there is an RSO class being offered on April 9th. The cost is $60 and so far there are 6 members signed up to attend

NEW BUSINESS

Charlie Adams gave a reminder for using appropriate firearms for each area of the range; especially in the pistol pit. If steel targets are being damaged you need to move to the rifle range.

Also Rebecca Caffrey celebrated members with birthdays in February and March. Happy Birthday Y'all!

Regi Armstrong:

Regi Armstrong and Kevin Casper are planning a Youth Training Day for 7-10th grade students from Saint Anthony Catholic School. Regi is acting as the interim youth leader at St. Anthony Catholic Church and is trying to find fun activities for the students to do. The date is pending. It would include conservation, range and weapon training, target shooting, and BBQ at the end. Details are still being discussed and arranged.

Hunt Club Balance: 993.91

STANDING COMMITTEES

HUNTING REPORT - ROGER BURROWS

The hunting season is over except for turkeys. Check regulations if you are interested. You need turkey tags from the DNR. Alligators are awake so be aware if you are hiking.

Fishing Report - Roger Burrows

Shad and Herring fish are running. For Shad there is a limit of 2 per day, and for Herring it is 129 per person per day. If you are fishing for Salt Water Stripers be sure and use Salt Water gear. There is a minimum size of 25-27 inches. They can best be found in the mouths and tributaries of streams and rivers on the Big PD.

ENVIRONMENTAL REPORT - VICTORIA HEATH

NA

EDUCATION - BOB VEASEY

Bob gave us an education on Surf Fishing with a Chum Rig. He found a wonderful idea on Youtube to recycle old medication bottles. You can use different sized bottles. The bottle lays in the current and will spin (putting out a scent). See the photos below and a video to demonstrate.
