

PICKLEBALL COACH JIM(BO) COHEN RATES

(As of January 1, 2022)

Jim(bo) Cohen, often referred to a “Coach Jimbo” is an accomplished Pickleball Player & Medalist, IPTPA Certified Coach, Rating Specialist, USAPA Referee (certification pending) and Entrepreneur.

Coach “Jimbo” is widely known and respected in the “Pickleball Circuit,” locally and nationally. He is a dedicated player & frequent tournament medalist; certified national coach, and knowledgeable referee extraordinaire. Before becoming “addicted” to Pickleball years ago, Jimbo was an accomplished tennis/squash/ping pong player for many decades. Currently retired following a distinguished career as a public interest attorney and advocate, political activist and nominee for national office, as well as a public & private school teacher, he has played, studied, coached and refereed the sport for endless hours; and over the years has himself been the fortunate recipient of talented coaching from some of the best and most respected women and men players in this hugely-growing, exciting and fun game. As a result, Jimbo brings an encouraging and passionate style of coaching to children, adults and seniors alike, including those with physical challenges. Recipients of Jimbo’s gentle, informal and yet disciplined coaching style have typically commented both on how much they learned, and on the fun they’ve experienced. A comedian at heart, he nonetheless takes the game seriously and is committed to empowering interested learners of all ages and abilities to get to their highest level of play.

Jimbo currently takes reservations by email (Jim@SpiritofTheHummingbird.com), phone and text communications (612-868-0009), and soon will post clinic schedules and available times to sign up for individual lessons on his superb website.
