It is almost time for the 2019 Terraces season opener when we will welcome for the first time, Chi-Town Transit Authority, a Chicago tribute band based in Atlanta. They were built to replicate the seven individual original band members and bring as much enthusiasm, versatility and purpose as the originals did. The opening concert is Saturday, May 25.

Among the band members are Tom Davis, the founder of the band and drummer, and Eric Gant who plays the bass and recreates Peter Cetera. The other members are musically diverse and strong in Chicago rhythms and music. The play list goes from the self-titled debut album right on through the entire catalogue.

Among the many hits that will be played are "25 or 6 to 4," "Colour my World," "I'm a Man," "If You Leave Me Now," "Just You 'N Me," "You're the Inspiration," "Questions 67 and 68," "I've Been Searching So Long" and "Baby, What A Big Surprise" among many other familiar songs. You'll be brought back to an original Chicago concert as Chi-Town Transit Authority uses original concerts to develop their mastery.

Following this exciting opener, the following five bands will be on our stage on Saturday night:

June 15 – Atlanta Dance Party Band

July 6 – The Glow Band (Experience the Eagles)

July 27 – The Tyn Times Band (Beach and soul music)

August 10 – The Kurt Thomas Band (A return engagement)

– The Street Fighting Band (Rolling Stone Tribute Band)

This year's concert series is brought to you by the Platinum Sponsors of State Farm Insurance – Parish Lowrie, Foothills IGA, Allstate Insurance Agency – Steve Moranos, Jasper Paint and Body, and Piedmont Mountainside Hospital.

Our Gold Sponsors are Day's Chevrolet and Tom's Awesome Seafood.
