A minister was once confronted by a religious person who made the incredible statement that the Devil was bound and that we are now in the Millennium. The minister replied, "If the Devil is bound, it must be with a rubber chain that stretches from Paris to Bombay and from Washington D.C. to the Kremlin." It does not take long for a thinking person to know by looking at what is happening around him that the Devil has never been more active than he is today. Crime and sin have never been more rampant.

There is coming a time, however, when the Devil will receive a much earned vacation. He will be unable to tempt, torment, or destroy any of God's children. This is the day which many have longed for. There will be perfect peace and happiness in the universe. The Devil is bound! This period of one thousand years is called the "Millennium." This term is not found in the Bible. It comes from two Latin words, "mille" and "annum," which mean 1000 years. The phrase "1000 years" is found six times in Revelation chapter 20. In Revelation 1:3 a special blessing is promised to those who study the book of Revelation. The exact words are these: "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. Not only will God's special blessing rest on the student of this book, but he will receive a blessing as he understands the future through his study of these prophecies. he will have new faith and confidence with which to face the future. Before you begin the study of this lesson, please read the entire 20th chapter of Revelation.

1. In what two resurrections did Christ say the dead will be raised?

John 5:28-29 - 1. _____

2. _____

2. When will the righteous dead be raised? 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17 -

3. What does the Bible call this resurrection? Revelation 20:6 -

4. What happens to the living righteous when Christ comes at the beginning of the Millennium? 1 Thessalonians 4:17 -

5. What does the Bible say that indicates that the righteous dead are raised at the beginning of the Millennium? Revelation 20:4-6 -

6. What effect does the coming of Christ have on the living wicked?

Jeremiah 25:31-33 - _____

Note: These are slain by the brightness of His coming. Sinful man is unable to stand before a sinless God. 2 Thessalonians 2:7-8 -

In a little town in Switzerland an unusual festival is celebrated each year. Scores of tourists flock to this village to observe the event. However, the accommodations are quite limited and many tourists are turned away each year. The story is told that one such group of tourists, as they were forced to leave, met another tourist coming to the festival. They stopped and told him to save his time for all of the accommodations were gone. "It's all right," he said, "I sent my reservation on ahead. I have a place reserved for me." Only one question remains to be answered and it is a vital one - where will you spend the 1000 years? With Christ and the saved, or with the wicked? It is possible by accepting Him now to make reservations for the future? Won't you send your reservation today? Tomorrow may be too late!

I wish to make my reservation in the New Jerusalem today.
