Joe Shank ('24-'25 Dayton PHCC President)

- Open:
- Welcome Guests - Noting any new attendees and PHCC business discussion will take place post presentation
  - Presentation: Glentronics Pumps & Alarms

Presentation: Brochure handed out to group with scratch pads and multi-tool ink pens

Basement Watchdog Sump Pumps brand of battery backup pumps, primary sump pumps and combination systems are available through most hardware or home improvement retailers. Basement Watchdog systems give you the peace of mind that your basement will remain dry.

Pro Series Pumps line of primary, battery backup and combination sump pumps are designed with the contractor in mind, providing an opportunity to offer "industrial grade products for the residential market." Available only through wholesale distributors or your local plumber.

Watchdog Water Alarms are designed to alert you to the presence of water leaks. Place near a water heater, sump pit, washing machine, laundry tub or under a sink and the Watchdog Water Alarm will sound a loud, 110db alarm, alerting you to the presence of as little 1/32" of water. Two options: the new Watchdog 360° Water Alarm (Model BW-WA360) and the original Watchdog Water Alarm (Model BWD-HWA).
