President's Message

Kathy Anderson, President

LeClaire Chamber of Commerce

Happy Holidays! I invite you to celebrate the LeClaire 2021 holiday season by reading the weekly Chamber email and Tourism announcements. It's the best way to learn more about the festive events we have planned for you.

Start the holidays by participating in Small Business Saturday on November 27. The Chamber is a strong supporter of this day to promote our small businesses. It is a national event where consumers across all 50 states shop, dine, or purchase locally. Try to make one of five of your purchases from a local business, the impact of your direct investment is felt by the community. By supporting small businesses in LeClaire, you help keep our businesses resilient. Resilience is the #1 Trend in 2022 identified by Forbes Magazine for business to adapt and thrive.

We have a very resilient community, and it is wonderful to enjoy the holiday events in "full swing" this year. Christmas in LeClaire is December 3-5, check out the schedule of events.

All LeClaire businesses and residents can again show their holiday spirit by decorating their store fronts, window displays and homes for the Annual Christmas Decorating Contest. Judging is on Saturday, November 27 with prizes for first, second and third place winners in both the business and residential categories. Prizes are LeClaire Chamber Bucks, a gift certificate program sponsored by the Chamber. They are available in increments of $10 and redeemable at LeClaire Chamber of Business members. The Chamber Bucks program keeps dollars in our community and make great gifts. They are easy to purchase and spend. Click here to learn more.

Exciting news! The Chamber will host the Annual Awards Dinner LIVE AND IN PERSON on Saturday, January 29, at Steventon's honoring our Chamber business members and local volunteers. The award winners are chosen by members of the LeClaire Chamber and announced at the dinner. All are welcome to attend the dinner and tickets will soon be available for purchase on the Chamber website.

The Annual Dinner is your time to network with Chamber members and friends. The evening also includes live and silent auctions to bid on items provided by local businesses, and live music. Please plan to attend as we look back on the accomplishments of 2021 and look ahead to serving you in 2022. Email LeClaireChamber@gmail.com, or call 563-289-9970 for more information or to donate auction items. We are grateful for your donations and happy to pick them up. We really missed this in person event last year and I look forward to seeing you.

On behalf of the Chamber Board, thank you for your membership in 2021. Please consider renewing as a member in 2022 or joining as a new member to enjoy the benefits of Chamber membership. Your partnership with the Chamber continues to make our historic community the place to live, work and play. We wish you a very happy holiday and health and happiness in the New Year.

Shop Small Saturday

Sat., Nov. 27: Shop Small Saturday. Please “Shop Small” to support our local businesses; find specials and holiday fun right in your hometown!

Did you know that 9/10 small business owners give back to their communities in a variety of ways?

Most of the LeClaire Chamber of Commerce members are small business owners. Please remember these businesses when you’re shopping throughout the year and during the holidays.

Santa and Mrs. Claus Return to LeClaire!

Santa and Mrs. Claus are comin’ back to town (in style)! Last year came with its challenges and we had to think outside of the box to keep everyone safe, all while still celebrating the magic of Christmas in LeClaire. This is when a very cool vintage car and our riverfront had the chance to shine! We welcomed the community to safely come down and get their photos taken with Santa and Mrs. Claus right on our riverfront. Thanks to the generosity of Ken Dahl, who graciously loaned us his incredible, vintage Bronco for the day—everyone got a picture perfect (and safe) day with Santa and Mrs. Claus.

The event was such a hit, we’re so excited to say we’ll be doing it again this year!

We invite everyone to come down to the LeClaire Civic Center, on Saturday, Dec. 4th from 12:30pm-3pm to get your free photos with Santa & Mrs. Claus. We can't wait to see what cool car they pull up in this year!

- Rain/snow location will be at Navigate Realty on the corner of Jones and Highway 67.

Holly Jolly Kid's Market

A group of Le Claire residents are putting together a Holly Jolly Kid's Market where children in grades K-6 can select gifts for their parents or caregivers. This will be on Sunday, December 12 from 1:30 until 4:30 pm at the Le Claire Civic Club.

Volunteers will help children select and wrap gifts for their loved ones. Free will donations will be accepted. The hope is that this stand-alone event will encourage local families to come downtown on a less busy day to shop and enjoy all our beautiful town has to offer.

AN EXPERIENCE FAR ABOVE THE REST.

Reflections from a Chamber President – Kathy Anderson

In 2011, Steve and I moved to LeClaire from Davenport because of our love for the river.

Steve was immediately at home in LeClaire as his brother and wife had lived here for many years. I was also excited to move here, yet I was moving from a city I had called home my entire life with my three sisters nearby. It wasn't that I didn't know a little about this lovely river town as I had been visiting shops like Dwellings for years.

So, the first thing I did in making LeClaire our new home was get to know our amazing neighbors and the amenities of living in this historic, riverfront community. I did this by walking – a lot. Walking downtown was my priority because it brought me closer to the river. I discovered the Mississippi River Distilling Company which had just opened in 2010. I started stopping in stores along my walks and soon met great business owners, such as Aunt Hattie, Kim Collier and Gina Tacaks as 129 Wine and Coffee Bar had just opened after we moved.

In 2013, I joined the Chamber as an individual to learn more about the Chamber's mission of building a healthy economy and quality of life. An opening on the Chamber Board in 2015 gave me the chance to reconnect with a former St. Ambrose colleague, Rick Reed. He encouraged me to apply and run for a Board position. It was something I really reflected on and decided would be a good way to get to know the LeClaire community even better. Who knows, I thought, maybe someday I'll have a family-owned business downtown? I served my first two-year term and have been President of the Board since 2017.

This service on the Board gave me such an insight into what it means to make LeClaire the vibrant, small-town community where people want to live and visit. I am so grateful for the people who serve on the Board and their commitment to LeClaire. This is a volunteer Board represented by members in various businesses and services who put their expertise into action. I'm especially grateful to the Board Officers, Debbie Mulvania, Mike Clingsmith and Dr. Crystal Buesing for their 24/7 availability to counsel and mentor me.

Volunteerism is the backbone of LeClaire. You'll see it in action year-round here, but especially in high gear during the holidays. It takes a lot of people to make these things happen. I'm grateful to the long-serving volunteers who lead these events, committees and Boards and the new volunteers who are joining the fun and bring their talent to the table. I'm grateful to the business owners for making LeClaire such a unique destination. I'm grateful for the services provided to the 4,710 residents who call LeClaire home. This level of volunteerism means people are giving huge amounts of time and talent back to LeClaire. That is one of the things that has made the strongest impression on me, that people are so giving. Decker Ploehn, Bettendorf City Administrator, was recently quoted as saying "relationships are how you get things done ... you have relationships with people that you can ask them to help you or vice versa." You see this every day here in LeClaire.

During my time as President, my daughter started her own business and invited me to partner with her. I am now a co-owner of this business and the first thing I did was pay for our LeClaire Chamber business membership. So, part of my vision to own a family business came true.

In short, I'm grateful.

May this Thanksgiving and Christmas season be a time of gratitude for you and those you love. Please take the opportunity to say thanks and lend a hand to those who might need it.

Witches Walk

LeClaire's Annual Witches Walk and Costume Contest was held on October 30th at the LeClaire Civic Center. This year's event was hosted by Sara Sampson, owner of Bamboo Baby. Individuals and group costumes were judged between 10:30-11:30am. There was no formal parade this year and trick or treaters were allowed to walk the sidewalks of LeClaire starting at 10:30am. People of all ages enjoyed numerous stops at local shops, and the trunk or treat and games at the Civic Center. Thank you to all who participated and thank you to Sara for a successful, fun event!

Safe Snow Shoveling

Winter has arrived....and that means bountiful snowfall. Snow shoveling means physical exertion to clear walk ways and driveways. Any repetitive activity like snow shoveling can cause muscle strain and soft tissue injury. Proper technique is critical to preventing injuries.

Tips for safe snow shoveling:

- Take on smaller loads
- Always lift with your legs, not with your back, to prevent strain
- Keep your back straight, bending and twisting is bad for the spine
- Stop immediately if you feel pain or a 'twinge'
- Use shovels with curved ergonomic handles in order to decrease back strain.

Let us help you overcome winter related injuries and demonstrate proper mechanics and exercise to avoid re-injury.

Fall Fest

The River Valley Optimist Club hosted Fall Fest on the LeClaire LeVee on October 10th. Despite the challenging weather conditions, there was a great turnout of people and vendors.

Some of the vendors for this event were; 11th Ave Creations, Hale Balls, What Bbq & Bar, 3G Designs, Queen Bead Iowa, Nan & Pap's Apple Butter, Ahbi Artwork, Ardon Creek, Design306, Eastern Iowa Baking Co., Hazelnut & Ivy, Heirloom Foods, Lillie & Pine, Ma & Pa's Kettle Korn, Scentsy, Casting Crew, The Cookie Jar, Costco, Faithful Pilot, A Little Some'n, Ellie's Acrylics, LucyLane & Rose, QC Soap Company, Mama M's, R's Honey, 4H, Barb's Garden & Pantry, Summer Kitchen, Cookies By Angie, G. G. & Company, On the River, Kay's Kreations, O So Good Winery, Quaking Aspen Workshop, and Two Chicks and a Flower Cart.

Thanks to all who showed up to support the event and the vendors! Pencil in the date of October 9th for next year's event!

Tourism Talk

It's that time of year when all of our businesses are gearing up for a successful holiday season, hoping to finish the year strong to help make it through the slower winter months. Please remember, LeClaire is open all year – even during the winter! Our business owners appreciate support from the local community and surrounding area at all times. Please “shop small/shop local” in LeClaire to support your friends and neighbors who have businesses here. (Look for more information in this e-news on a fun way to win some great gift certificates to LeClaire businesses.) If you haven't dined, shopped, or toured in LeClaire recently, I highly recommend you try it out. You will be pleased with what you find, and I can guarantee that the business owners will love it!

A great way community members can enjoy LeClaire is to attend upcoming events that include Friday Night LIVE in LeClaire (held on the first Friday of the month), wine tastings, live music, comedians, movies and sporting events on a big screen, Christmas in LeClaire and the Ugly Christmas Sweater 5k, and other events.

There is so much fun to be had (including great shopping, dining, and touring) that I can't mention everything here. If you want to keep up-to-date on all the great events going on in LeClaire, you can go to www.visitleclaire.com, under “Contact Us” click on “E-Newsletter Signup”, and submit your email address to receive our e-news that goes out once a month or check out our website anytime. You can “Like” us on Facebook (LeClaire, Iowa), too, to see daily updates and follow us on Twitter and Instagram. Please post your photos and tag us, too, so we can see how much fun you're having in LeClaire! #visitleclaire

If you want to be part of the excitement and volunteer at the LeClaire Information Center, please contact me at info@visitleclaire.com. We have a lot of fun! In fact, we have a party and other gatherings every year to celebrate our volunteers. This year the Holiday Inn Express treated us to breakfast in May, the Mississippi River Distilling Company hosted us and treated us to delicious cocktails while Crane & Pelican Café provided munchies plus we toured the new Celebration Center, and we're planning our Christmas party for late December. Please consider joining us!

Thank you for your interest in LeClaire & Happy Holidays!

Networking Events for 2021

The last LeClaire Chamber of Commerce networking event for the 2021 year is December 14, 2021 at 5:30pm at the Mississippi River Distilling Company. We hope to see everyone there!

We'll be joined by friends from Visit Quad Cities who are hosting an AccelerateVQC event at 3pm

Don't let all the consumer data you have access to just sit there on the shelf. Now is the time to use that data to reach out to more customers and engage them with your brand and business.

At our AccelerateVQC event, you'll hear from three leading tech companies Visit Quad Cities is partnering with to drive tourism to the Quad Cities regional destination while building QC brand champions. It's free to attend and we hope to share a little holiday cheer with you.

Agenda:

3:00 pm - Registration

3:15 pm - Program

4:15 pm - Cocktail Demonstration

4:30 pm - Holiday Mingle & Pop-Up Shopping with Appetizers & Cash bar

Upcoming Events

Shop Small Saturday – Saturday, November 27th

Ugly Christmas Sweater 5k – Saturday, December 4th at 3:30pm

Christmas in LeClaire – December 3-5th

Annual Dinner – January 29th

For those gifts you might still need (or for yourself), Argrow's House will have a pop-up shop at the AccelerateVQC event.

Argrow's House is a healing house offering free services for survivors of domestic violence & abuse. It's also a social enterprise, which hires survivors to create beautiful bath products to provide a living wage in a safe space that celebrates who they are.

Visit Quad Cities will also be collecting non-perishable food & canned goods for Argrow's House on Dec. 14.

Thank you to City Leaders

A special thank you to Mayor Ray Allen for his six years of service as Mayor of the City of LeClaire. We are grateful for his time and commitment for serving our community, and we wish Ray and Connie all the best in their "retirements."

We also recognize the extraordinary service of Ed Choate as City Administrator for the past 42 years as he retires in December. Thank you, Ed, and happy retirement!

Best wishes to Jo Phares who has served as the city's Utility Clerk since 1991 as she also retires in December.

Congratulations to Mayor Pro-Tem Dennis Gerard for his election as the incoming Mayor of LeClaire. Dennis has served on the council since 2015 and we're grateful for his continued commitment to keep LeClaire a strong and resilient community.

Thanks also to Council Members Amy Blair, Sara Gravert, Barry Long, and Ryan Salvador for their continued service.

Vote for 2021 Annual Awards and 2022 Chamber Board of Directors

Watch email and weekly announcements for the ballot to cast your vote for the 2021 Annual Award recipients. The award winners are announced at the annual dinner in January. Please take the time to participate in this vote and recognize our Chamber members.

The ballot will also include nominations for re-election to the Chamber Board of Directors. Currently, there are four Board members eligible for renewal and one opening on the Board. Board members serve for a two-year term. The Board responsibilities include attending monthly meetings, voting on issues that come before the Board (including the budget), hiring staff positions, representing the Chamber at all times, understanding and supporting the mission of the Chamber, attending events and serving on committees. A full position description can be found on the Chambers website.

If you are interested in applying for a Board position, please send your letter of application to Kathy Anderson at kathy@leclairechamber.com. Your letter should include your reasons for volunteering as a Board member and your business or volunteer experience. We will not be able to accept any write-in nominations on the Board ballot.
