Artistic:	People with Artistic interests like work that deals with the artistic side of things, such as acting, music, art, and design. They like creativity in their work and work that can be done without following a set of rules.
Social:	People with Social interests like working with others to help them learn and grow. They like working with people more than working with objects, machines, or information. They like teaching, giving advice, and helping and being of service to people.
Enterprising:	People with Enterprising interests like work that has to do with starting up and carrying out business projects. These people like taking action rather than thinking about things. They like persuading and leading people, making decisions, and taking risks for profit.
Conventional:	People with Conventional interests like work that follows set procedures and routines. They prefer working with information and paying attention to detail rather than working with ideas. They like working with clear rules and following a strong leader.

What is Your Job Zone?

To figure out what careers to explore, it's helpful to know how much education, training, and experience you need to do a job. This level of preparation is known as a Job Zone. Careers that require similar levels of preparation are grouped into the same Job Zone. To explore careers, you will need to choose a Job Zone that you plan on working towards in the future.

Job Zone 1 — Careers need Little or No Preparation

- No previous skills, knowledge, or experience is needed.
 - May require a high school diploma or GED certificate.
 - May need from a few days to a few months of training.

Job Zone 2 — Careers need Some Preparation

- Usually need a high school diploma.
 - Some previous skills, knowledge, or experience is usually needed.
 - May need from a few months to one year of working with experienced employees.

Job Zone 3 — Careers need Medium Preparation

- Usually requires training in vocational schools, related on-the-job experience, or an associate's degree.
 - Previous skills, knowledge, or experience needed.
 - Need one or two years of training.

Job Zone 4 — Careers need High Preparation

- Most careers require a four-year bachelor's degree, but some do not.
 - Long-term skills, knowledge, or experience needed.
 - Need several years of work-related experience and training.

Job Zone 5 — Careers need Extensive Preparation

- Most of these careers need a graduate school education.
 - Extensive skills, knowledge, and experience are needed; many requiring more than five years of experience.
 - May need some on-the-job training; however, the person will usually have the needed skills, knowledge, work-related experience, and training before starting the job.

Pick a Job Zone from above that matches the education, training, and experience you plan on getting in the FUTURE. Careers in higher Job Zones often pay more and offer more opportunities. Learn about the type of careers that can match your interests in the FUTURE!

Exploring Careers Using Your Interests and Your Job Zone:

Using your Primary Interest and Job Zone allows you to find careers that match your interests and fit your amount of job preparation. The O*NET Career Listings document shows careers for each Interest and Job Zone.

1. Find your Primary Interest and look over the careers listed.

2. Find your Job Zone under your Primary Interest and review the careers listed. Do you see any careers that you would like to find out more about? Write down the Career Title for each career you want to explore. On the next page, an O*NET Careers Worksheet is provided to write these titles down.

3. Now that you have selected careers to explore, go to My Next Move at: <https://www.mynextmove.org/>.

Search careers with keywords or to browse careers by industry. For each career, you can find:

- the types of activities that are performed in those careers;
- the knowledge, skills, abilities, technology, and education that are needed for the careers;
- job postings, training, certification, and apprenticeship information for the careers;
- state-level employment statistics for the careers; and
- the wages and future employment outlook that are predicted for the careers.

4. To find more career choices related to your interests not in your list, go to the Interest Browse function within My Next Move at <https://www.mynextmove.org/find/interests>.

5. If you don't like the careers in your Job Zone listed for your Primary Interest, you have choices:

- Review the Job Zone definitions to make sure that you have chosen the Job Zone that best matches what you have now.
- Choose a different Job Zone that you want to work towards in the FUTURE.
- Use your second or third highest interests to look at careers.

O*NET Careers Worksheet

The O*NET Career Listings document includes a sample of the careers that are linked with the six Interests and the five Job Zones. They are organized first by Interest and then by Job Zone within the Interest.

Copy your Primary, Second, and Third Interests from page 1 of the Score Report below:

Primary Interest: 1 _____

Second and Third Interests: 2 _____ 3 _____

Also, copy your Job Zone from page 2 of the Score Report below:

Your FUTURE Job Zone: _____

To look at the careers linked with your Primary Interest, locate the section for your Primary Interest in the O*NET Career Listings document and then find the career listing for your Job Zone under that section. For a longer list of careers, refer to My Next Move's Interest Browse at <https://www.mynextmove.org/find/interests>.

You can also use your second or third highest interest to look at careers. Find the career listings for your Job Zone under the sections that match your second or third interest.
