PRESS

"Hartley's Encore who, if you haven't caught them before, could easily steal away the night for you. Hartley's Encore is memorable for its tight, intact sound...nicely held together by Luke Malamood on keys and vocals, and a strong drum kit team of Mike Gilet and [Erik Pravel]."

Hartley's Encore is a funk/soul band from Albany, NY. Their mission: making music that's equal parts soundtrack to your Saturday night and bacon for your Sunday brunch. Frequently FUNKY—and always soulful—H.E. is the house band at your dance party for the apocalypse. Their sound: (1) smart melodies & hooks; (2) funk/R&B grooves; (3) earworm horn lines; (4) electrifying solos. Think: Bill Withers + The Meters + Jamiroquai + Tower of Power + Soulive/Lettuce.
