

Our town:

Noblesville is a vibrant, friendly, growing, and thriving community situated 25 miles north of Indianapolis. It is the county seat for Hamilton County – the most affluent county in Indiana and ranked as the 20th best county in the United States. Noblesville comes in as the 3rd best city in Indiana according to World News – just behind our neighbors – Carmel and Fishers. Noblesville shares geographic boundaries with: Westfield, Carmel, Fishers, Cicero and Sheridan Indiana.

Noblesville has a rich history that is embraced by city leaders, while also welcoming new growth. One thing that sets us apart from other suburbs is our historic courthouse square. The square is surrounded by many quaint shops and restaurants that cater to the locals and draw visitors from afar. The city has recently made enhancements that include three multi-story apartment buildings within walking distance of downtown.

Noblesville boasts a population over 75,000 – a 500 % increase from 40 years ago at 15,000. Although growth has come at a fast pace, expect people you encounter to offer a friendly greeting while enjoying all our amenities. The area is characterized by high median household incomes, low unemployment, low poverty rates, low crime rates and a well-educated work force.

Our Schools:

Noblesville is blessed with a very desirable public school system that consistently performs above state and national averages. The system has 10,525 students educated in: 1 High School, 2 Middle Schools and 7 Elementary Schools.

Noblesville High School (Nickname – The Millers) has nearly 3100 students – has a 98% graduation rate and scored – 1210 on SAT (Indiana 969) and 28 (Indiana – 23.3) on ACT tests in 2025. Enrollment is projected to remain relatively steady over the next 10 years. They are ranked 20th in the state by Niche.com and in the top 10% of US high schools according to US News and World Report.

Noblesville has a few private and parochial schools that are all highly rated including Our Lady of Grace, Legacy Christian School and Theodore Guerin High School

Noblesville Public School System:

High School:

- Noblesville High School — 18111 Cumberland Road

Middle Schools:

- Noblesville East Middle School — 1625 Field Drive
- Noblesville West Middle School — 19900 Hague Road

Elementary Schools:

- Hazel Dell Elementary — 3025 Westfield Road
- Hinkle Creek Elementary — 595 South Harbour Drive
- Noble Crossing Elementary — 5670 Noble Crossing Parkway
- North Elementary — 440 North 10th Street
- Promise Road Elementary — 14975 Promise Road
- Stony Creek Elementary — 1350 Greenfield Avenue
- White River Elementary — 19000 Cumberland Road

Our People

Noblesville's residents average 37.4 years old according to the 2024 US Census Report. Fifty nine percent of the population fits the 18 to 64 age group and about 15 % of the residents are 65 or older.

The community is 82% White, 5% Black, 6% Hispanic, 4% Asian and 3% Other. Sixty percent of Census respondents indicated they were married, 26% have never been married, 10% are divorced and 4% are Widowed.

Nearly 97% of residents have High School diplomas and 54% have attained a bachelor's degree or higher.

Housing:

Hamilton County currently has a median sale price of homes at $474,900. Noblesville is slightly more affordable with median sale prices around $423,000. There are approximately 535 homes for sale, and they average roughly 40 days to sell. Homes are available from $135,000 to $6,500,000 as of 08/17/2026.

Homes by price range according to Redfin.com are:

$100,000 to $300,000	64
$300,000 to $400,000	167
$400,000 to $500,000	162
$500,000 and up	133

There are several new neighborhoods being built ranging from over Age 55 communities, multi-level Apartments, Townhomes, Condominiums and large single-family homes. Noblesville has approximately 29,000 living units with 72% being single family housing.

Economy:

Income levels in Noblesville, Indiana are significantly higher than the overall state average. According to data from the U.S. Census Bureau QuickFacts, (2024) Noblesville boasts a median household income of approximately $104,047, whereas the broader state of Indiana's median household income sits lower, around $71,957. [1, 2]

Largest Manufacturing Employers:

SMC – 1100 employees – air pneumatic systems for automotive
GE Healthcare – 1000+ employees – Refurbishment of Ultrasound equipment
AMBU – formerly King Systems - 586 employees - medical airway and anesthesia products
Helmer Scientific – 295 employees – Manufacturer of medical grade refrigeration units
Ryan Fire Protection – 277 employees – Fire Protection equipment
IDC – 130 employees – plastic casting company
Metro Plastics – 109 employees – Plastic injection molding
Gaylor Electric – 100 employees in Noblesville, 3500 nationwide – electrical components
Noble Industries – 60 employees – Metal fabricating

Other Large employers:

Riverview Health Network – 3500
Noblesville Schools - 1800

Income Comparison

- Median Household Income: Noblesville's median household income (~$104,047 to $116,235 depending on the specific neighborhood tracking boundary) is roughly 45% to 55% higher than the state of Indiana median. [1, 2, 3]
- Per Capita Income: Noblesville reports a per capita income of about $49,199, which heavily outpaces the general per capita figures found across rural and mid-sized areas in Indiana. [1]
- County Context: Noblesville performs similarly to—though slightly below—the wider Hamilton County median household income of $121,530, which is one of the wealthiest counties in the state. [1]

Poverty and Economic Health

- Poverty Rates: The poverty rate in Noblesville is roughly 5.3%, which is noticeably lower than the overall state-wide poverty rate in Indiana. [1, 2]
- Top Earning Sectors: Major local employment and high-paying fields in the Noblesville area include health care, manufacturing, retail trade, and specialized technical or utility sectors. [1]

Things to Do:

- Dining – Noblesville has a large variety of local restaurants surrounding the downtown area as well as larger chain restaurants throughout the city. Combining eateries within 30 minutes of Noblesville would yield over 100 options.
- Arts – Noblesville has a growing Visual Art community with many local artists in residence.
 - Noblesville Creates is the catalyst organization behind most activities in the Arts. The Courthouse square has many Art and Music events each year.
 - Noblesville Main Street hosts the Farmers Market each week and the wildly popular Street Dance as well as other fun activities.
 - Federal Hill Commons Park is the site for the Farmers Market and hosts several band concerts during the summer.
 - Ruoff Music Center hosts bands of all genres of music at its outdoor arena.
 - Connor Prairie – although technically in nearby Fishers is a living history museum that also has “Symphony on the Prairie” each week during the summer.
- Golf – Noblesville has 18 golf courses within a 30-minute drive of which 4 are private and the other 14 public fee. There is also a TopGolf in nearby Fishers.
- Shopping – Noblesville Town Center on the East side of town is host to many retail stores with a wide variety of shops. Downtown Noblesville has several local retailers selling a plethora of goods. We are also home to a Costco and a BJ's wholesale club.

- Water Activities – Morse reservoir is available for all types of water sports and boating. Morse is 7 miles long and has 33 miles of shoreline. Real estate bordering the lake is quite valuable and desirable with little availability. White River is a relatively shallow (4 feet) body of water and well suited to rafting, kayaking and canoeing. Fishing along the river is overall good.
- Professional Sports – In nearby Indianapolis, we are fortunate to have the Indiana Pacers of the NBA, Indiana Fever of the WNBA and the Indianapolis Colts of the NFL. The Indianapolis Indians are a AAA baseball team and the Indy Fuel play in the ECHL – a 3rd level hockey league. The Indy Eleven play in the USL soccer league. The Noblesville Boom are the G-league affiliate of the Pacers and play at Innovation Mile in Noblesville.
- Youth Sports – There are so many opportunities for players of all skill levels to enjoy some type of sport in Noblesville. Leagues exist at a recreational level and at elite travel levels for: Baseball, Basketball, Cheer, Football, Golf, Lacrosse, Rugby, Soccer, Softball, Tennis and Volleyball.
- Trails – All the cities in Hamilton County have actively been installing walking/biking trails that currently account for over 600 miles of pathway. It is very easy and safe to travel between the cities by bicycle.

Parks - Noblesville has 7 city parks: Noblesville.in.gov/Parks

Dr. James A. Dillon Park

A hub for active recreation on the city's west side, Dillon Park features multi-purpose athletic fields, playgrounds, pickleball courts, a splash pad, and a skate park. The Dillon Park Lodge provides rental space for private events, and miles of paved trails connect to nearby neighborhoods and regional paths.

Federal Hill Commons

Located in the heart of downtown Noblesville, Federal Hill Commons is both a park and a gathering space. Its amphitheater hosts concerts and festivals all season long, while the plaza and green provide open space for farmers markets, yoga, and community events.

Finch Creek Park

As Noblesville's newest large-scale park, Finch Creek Park is designed for families and fun. The park offers inclusive playgrounds, basketball courts, splash pad, picnic shelters, and scenic walking paths. Its proximity to Finch Creek Fieldhouse makes it a destination for both sports and recreation.

Forest Park

A true Noblesville landmark, Forest Park is one of the city's most beloved destinations. Spanning more than 150 acres, it includes playgrounds, picnic shelters, sports courts, and historic amenities like the Forest Park Inn and Forest Park Golf Course. It's also home to signature community events, including the Father's Day Car Show and BrewBQ. It is also home to our annual outdoor Worship Service and picnic.

Riverwalk Depot Pocket Park

Nestled along the White River, this pocket park connects downtown Noblesville to the scenic Riverwalk. It's a charming spot for a quick rest, photo opportunity, or peaceful stroll near the historic train depot.

Seminary Park

A serene downtown greenspace with mature trees and open lawns, Seminary Park is a small but cherished park often used for art installations, intimate concerts, and seasonal community gatherings. It's currently home to the Peony Festival and several cultural events throughout the year.

Southside Park

Located within a residential neighborhood, Southside Park offers a playground, basketball courts, and open green space perfect for family gatherings and outdoor play.

Hague Road Nature Haven

Hague Road Nature Haven is a peaceful green space featuring natural trails, open areas for exploration, and native habitats that support local wildlife. It's the perfect spot for a quiet walk, birdwatching, or simply enjoying nature.

Potters Bridge – A Hamilton County Park

A historic covered bridge built between 1870 and 1871 is the focus of this park. Vehicles are no longer permitted to drive across the bridge, but pedestrian and bicycle traffic are allowed. Until August 2026, the bridge seemed safe from floodwaters, but during the historic flooding with water cresting above 24 feet, water did reach the base of the bridge. There are bike and walking trails that run beside the White River as well as picnic areas.

Safety:

Noblesville and the surrounding areas are generally considered a very safe place to live and work according to Nextdoor.com.

- The crime rate per 1,000 in Noblesville is 6.19 compared to Indiana at 30.15 and the US at 33.37.
- The violent crime rate is 5.52/1,000 which compares favorably to Indiana at 16.86 and the US at 20.05.
- Property Crime rate is .67 per 1000 compared to 13.29 in Indiana and 13.32 nationally.
- Crime rates have been very good overall despite the increase in population over the past 40 years.
- The Noblesville Police department (NPD) is very well funded and highly respected by the community at large. They employ 111 sworn officers and are assisted by 14 civilians.
- The Noblesville Fire department (NFD) covers 58 square miles with 140 firefighters and 7 fire stations.
- Riverview Hospital is a well-respected, full medical care facility. There are 156 inpatient beds available. The network has over 2,200 employees with 350 Physicians and 14 care facilities. They have recently become affiliated with Parkview Hospital of Ft Wayne, IN.

Houses of Worship:

There are over 24 prominent and recognized churches within the confines of the Noblesville zip codes of 46060 and 46062.

- 12 non-denominational
- 2 Methodist
- 1 Presbyterian
- 1 Christian – Disciples of Christ
- 1 Catholic
- 2 Baptist
- 1 Assembly of God
- 1 African Methodist Episcopalian
- 1 Episcopalian
- 1 Lutheran
- 1 Pilgrim Holiness

There is no stand-alone interfaith organization for Pastors or Congregations. The Good Samaritan Network serves as a central hub connecting local churches, diverse places of worship, pastors, and faith-based leaders across Hamilton County. They run the annual Hamilton County Interfaith Summit and ongoing coalition initiatives.

First Presbyterian Church has intentionally remained a downtown, urban church where we can best serve our community.

Within a 30-minute drive are 7 additional Presbyterian churches:

New Hope – Fishers - PCUSA

Crossroads Church – Westfield - PCUSA

Faith – Indianapolis far northside - PCUSA

Zionsville – Zionsville - PCUSA

Orchard Park – Carmel - PCUSA

Grace Presbyterian – Indianapolis far northside – PCA

Christ Presbyterian – McCordsville - PCUSA

Summary:

Noblesville is a growing and thriving community with a small-town feel. We have easy access to major Interstates and the amenities of Indianapolis. The quality of our schools, safety, employment and recreational opportunities all make Noblesville an attractive destination for anyone seeking a place to live, work, and raise a family.