

Kimo was born in Amityville, New York, He holds an MA in Management and a BA from Berklee College of Music in Boston.

As a composer, received the Lancaster Symphony's 38th Recipient - Composers Award for Contributions to American Music. He is a Fulbright Specialist and Encore Purpose Prize Fellow.

His photography has received numerous awards and featured in The Smithsonian Magazine, National Geographic Editor's Choice, and in the permanent collection of the Chicago's National Veterans Arts Museum.

In 2003, he co-founded and directed the "Lt Dan Band," performing for the USO

Recently his photography was selected for inclusion in the 2022 new Apple TV+ series, RIPPLE EFFECTS, starring Emmy Award winner Elisabeth Moss, with Oscar-winner Leonardo DiCaprio as executive producer.

Kimo and his creative partner and wife Carol (an exhibited artist and opinion writer for several newspapers) live in Shepherdstown, West Virginia, on a cliff overlooking the Potomac River.