

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Niemiec Receives National Recognition by being Named a Bold Progressive Champion by the Progressive Change Campaign Committee

07/23/2019 — Zachary S. Niemiec, who is running for North Tonawanda 2nd Ward Alderman, was named a 2019 Champion by the Progressive Change Campaign Committee, which recognizes candidates from around the country who are fighting for looking out for the needs of everyday families.

"Our 2019 Champions across the country are committed to solving big problems affecting their communities," said Marissa Barrow, a spokesperson for the Progressive Change Campaign Committee. "Selected for their bold vision, these candidates are highly capable leaders ready to make change."

"The candidates on our Champions List are running great campaigns powered by the grassroots, not corporate interests," said Stephanie Taylor, co-founder of the Progressive Change Campaign Committee. "We're proud to support them as they turn big ideas into action for working families."

Niemiec thanks the PCCC for their support and recognizing him for being a champion of working families. "Our campaign strives to build unity in the community putting the focus on people & policy, not party & politics. This means actively looking to work with others regardless of background to find solutions, not gridlock."

For more information about this release, or about Zachary Niemiec visit www.niemiecfornt.com or, contact the campaign at niemiecfornt@gmail.com