Planned gifts can take many forms—such as a bequest in your will or trust, gifts of real property or other non-cash assets, or naming McCoy's Grand as a beneficiary of your life-insurance policy or retirement plan. ### BEQUEST

A bequest is one of the simplest and most meaningful ways to support McCoy's Grand. You can designate a specific amount, percentage, or portion of your estate in your will or living trust. To do so, name McCoy's Grand as a beneficiary and include our full legal name and Tax Identification Number (31-1105191).

You may also choose to name McCoy's Grand as a beneficiary of your retirement plan or life-insurance policy. Assets such as 401(k)s, 403(b)s, IRAs, and profit-sharing plans can offer significant tax advantages when gifted to a nonprofit, as they pass to McCoy's Grand free of both estate and income taxes.

Updating a beneficiary designation is simple—contact your plan administrator or insurance provider and list McCoy's Grand as a primary, contingent, or partial beneficiary.

Your planned gift ensures McCoy's Grand will continue to inspire, engage, and enrich the community well into the future.
