THE SNOW QUEEN REIGNS AT McCOY'S

Missoula Children's Theatre came to McCoy's Grand for our annual summer workshop. Thirty-one students from Hardy County took part in the week-long workshop. Two performances were held on June 27 at 3pm and 5:30pm. Special Thanks to The Hardy County Community Foundation, Hardy County Community Impact Fund and theWilliam "Bill" Sloan & Family Community Giving Fund for supporting this special outreach program.

HERE COME THE SUMMER LIGHTS!

McCoy's Grand will be closed in August and September to install new lighting and sound equipment for the theatre along with hearing assisting devices and new sound equipment. These new audience improvements will enhance the experience of McCoy's for all future productions. We will be back for Hardy Heritage Weekend at the end of September along with a full fall roster of shows and events. We will keep you posted on all the events thru the monthly newsletter.
