

ASIS

INSTITUTE FOR OUTREACH & EDUCATION

BACKPACKING

RETREAT

4 DAYS/3 NIGHTS

Thursday, July 9th - Sunday, July 12th

Trip Overview

A group of 20 sisters will complete a backpacking trip along Michigan's northern coast. The group will be led by an Islamic scholar and at least one expert on the outdoors. Participants must arrive to Dearborn by 3pm on Wednesday, July 8th for staging and remain in Dearborn after the trip until gear is organized and sorted on the night of Sunday, July 12th.

Trip Details

Sisters 18 and older are eligible to register. Food, gear, and transportation to and from Dearborn will be included. Some days will require 4-8 miles of hiking while carrying 30-40 pounds. The cost for each person is $500.

What to Expect

Spending time in nature is rejuvenating, and backpacking provides an opportunity to intimately enjoy its beauty. Unforeseen challenges always arise in The Great Outdoors, but working through them together will build a special and lasting bond.

Visit edoasis.org/backpacking for more information or to apply