

ASIS

INSTITUTE FOR OUTREACH & EDUCATION

BACKPACKING

RETREAT

4 DAYS/3 NIGHTS

Thursday, August 21st – Sunday, August 24th

Trip Overview

A group of 20 sisters will complete a backpacking trip along Michigan's northern coast. The group will be led by an Islamic scholar and at least one expert on the outdoors. Participants must arrive to Dearborn by noon on Wednesday, August 20th for staging and remain in Dearborn after the trip until noon on Monday, August 25th for wrap-up.

Trip Details

Sisters 16 and older are eligible to register. Food, gear, and transportation to and from Dearborn will be included. Each day will require 2-12 miles of hiking while carrying 30-40 pounds. The cost for each person is $500.

What to Expect

Spending time in nature is rejuvenating, and backpacking provides an opportunity to intimately enjoy its beauty. Unforeseen challenges always arise in The Great Outdoors, but working through them together will build a special and lasting bond.

Visit edoasis.org/backpacking for more information or to register