- ii. Any person who allows a dog to bark excessively or howl excessively shall be deemed guilty of an infraction of this bylaw.
- iii. The Municipality may issue a written order under Section 9 if there is anything in the physical environment that the dog is being kept in that can be remedied that would prevent said dog from barking or howling excessively or that would lessen its nuisance factor.
- iv. The Municipality may apply to a judge to have a dog that barks or howls excessively, at the owner's expense, muzzled, fitted with a collar or device that deters barking or permanently removed from the municipality.

(b) Animal Feces:

- i. An owner or occupant of private property must not allow animal feces to accumulate on the property so as to create a health hazard.
- ii. The Village of Waldeck may serve an owner or occupant of private property with a notice to remove all animal feces from the property within 72 hours of service of the notice.
- iii. If a notice under Subsection (3) is not served personally on an owner or occupant of private property, then a copy of the notice shall be sent by registered mail to the owner of the property at the mailing address shown on the last revised assessment roll of the Village.
- iv. The Village may remove the feces from the property if the person to whom the request is made fails to remove the feces within the 72 hours; or after reasonable inquiry, the whereabouts of the owner or occupant of the property cannot be determined.
- v. If the Village carries out the work under subsection (5), the costs and expenses incurred are a debt due to the Village and the Village may recover the costs and expenses:
 - 1) by action in a court of competent jurisdiction;
 - 2) in the same manner as municipal taxes; or
 - 3) by adding the costs and expenses to, and thereby they form part of, the taxes on the land on which the work was done.

9. Dangerous Dogs/Cats

- (a) Subject to the Public Health Act and any regulations thereunder providing that when, upon complaint that a dog or cat has bitten or attempted to bite a person, it appears to the Justice of the Peace or Provincial Court Judge having cognizance of the complaint that the dog or cat is dangerous, the Justice or Judge may make an order directing that the dog or cat be kept by the owner, possessor or harbourer under proper control or be destroyed; and that person failing to comply with the order shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for every day during which the failure continues; and providing that, when a dog or cat is ordered to be destroyed, the Justice or Judge may, by the same order, direct any person to destroy the dog or cat.
- (b) Where an owner possesses a dog that displays outward signs of aggression such as threatening barking, growling, snapping, lunging, frothing at the mouth, etc. such owner shall ensure that the dog is properly restrained or contained whether it is on or off its own property. Where a dog displays aggressive behavior as described in subsection (b), the owner shall ensure that proper precautions have been taken to prevent the dog from escaping from its harboured property and that children of tender age cannot gain access to the property or the dog.
- (c) Where a municipality believes an owner has not taken the necessary precautions to contain an aggressive dog as required in subsection b), the municipality may issue a written order requiring the owner of the property to remedy any lack of physical containment as identified by the municipality. An order written under subsection d) is not limited to the following but may contain any or all of the following requirements:
 - i. repair or construction of a property line fence;
 - ii. repair or construction of a dog run;
 - iii. physically moving the dog run or containment area of the dog from one area of the property to a more suitable area on the property;
 - iv. locking of perimeter fences or dog runs;
 - v. posting warning signs on the perimeter of the property advising the public of the presence of a dog of an aggressive nature.

10. Entry and Search

- (a) If a peace officer as defined by the Criminal Code or a designated officer has reasonable grounds to believe that an animal that is dangerous or has been ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of is in or on any premises, the peace officer or designated officer may enter the premises and search for and impound the animal in accordance with Section 378(1) of The Municipalities Act, and as amended from time to time by the Act: 378(1)
- (b) A peace officer or a designated officer who has reasonable grounds for believing that an animal is dangerous or has been ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of and is in or on any premises other than a private dwelling may, with or without a warrant: enter the premises; search for the animal; and either impound the animal or, if there is an order to destroy or otherwise dispose of the animal, deliver the animal to the person appointed in the order to destroy or otherwise dispose of it.
- (c) a peace officer or designated officer shall not enter any place that is a private dwelling without: the consent of the owner or occupant of the private dwelling; or a warrant issued pursuant to authorizing the entry.

- (d) If a person owes the Village for costs incurred by the Village with respect to a dangerous animal, the Village may add the amount owing to the tax roll of any parcel of land for which the person is the assessed owner. If an amount is added to the tax roll of a parcel of land pursuant to Section 11(a), the amount: is deemed for all purposes to be a tax imposed pursuant to section 369 of The Municipalities Act from the date it was added to the tax roll; forms a lien against the parcel of land in favour of the Village from the date it was added to the tax roll.

11. Offences and Penalties

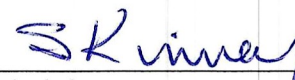

- (a) Every person who commits a breach of any section of this Bylaw shall be guilty of an offence and upon conviction, shall be liable to:
- i. a penalty of fifty dollars ($ 75.00) for the first offence
 - ii. a penalty of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) for the second offence;
 - iii. a penalty up to one thousand dollars ($1000.00) for the third and every subsequent offence.
- (b) Payments to be made at the Village Office during regular working hours. If no payment arrangements are made or finalized within 7 days small claims court or collections agency will be the next action of the Village.
- (c) Service of a Notice of Violation may be made by mailing such to the owner, possessor or harbourer of the dog or cat in respect of which the Notice of Violation has been issued; or by personal service upon such person; or by delivery to an adult person at the home of such person.
