

Outpatient Therapist Job Descriptions

NC CABHA Agency

A Master's Degree in Social Work, Counseling, Psychology or related field and full licensure as an Independent Practitioner within 60 days of employment is required. Applicant must provide documentation of Licensure application if not currently licensed.

One year post graduate experience in a clinical setting with child/adolescent population preferred. Preferred experience with child mental health and issues of abuse and neglect. Experience working with children struggling with mental health issues stemming from early traumas and/or attachment challenges.

JRI Trauma Institute

Eligible Candidates must:

- Have had 8+ years of experience working with traumatized children and families
- Have had direct experience working with caregivers of traumatized children
- Have had direct experience working in the field of foster care and adoption
- Have had direct experience working with children and their caregivers from early childhood through adolescence
- Have had direct experience providing expert consultation to providers, families, and larger systems (i.e., DCF, multi-disciplinary teams, residential programs)
- Preference given to candidates who have been trained in some or all of the following treatment modalities: Parent-Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT); Attachment, Self-Regulation, and Competency (ARC); Dyadic Developmental Psychotherapy (DDP)
- . Be available during daytime hours for clinic team meetings, supervision and clients as well as have evening availability at least 2 nights/week for clients.
- Be a MA-licensed LICSW, LMHC, Ph.D. or Psy.D.