

Decorations

Christmas in early dawn

Decorated trees lighted up

In bizarre shapes twinkling

The sun has not risen yet

A church stands solitary

Only a few people passing along

Not much traffic yet

All waiting for the big rush

Soon the day will bring the sun out

The anticipation of beautiful things to come

A joyous event through time

Renata Dawidowicz

